MARGARET FULLER BICENNTENNIAL EVENTS AT GENERAL ASSEMBLY

MAJOR PROGRAM

Margaret Fuller – A Woman for the 21st Century

Friday, June 25, 2:25 to 4:00 pm

Margaret Fuller was a public intellectual, a member of the Transcendentalist circle and a woman far ahead of her time. Celebrate the bicentennial of her birth with this panel of distinguished scholars as we consider her life and her significance to our modern Unitarian Universalist faith.

- Professor Lawrence Buell – author of several award-winning books including Emerson (2003)
- Professor Charles Capper – author of Margaret Fuller:an American Romantic Life, Volume 1: The Private Years, Oxford University Press, which won the Bancroft Prize in 1993; and Volume 2: The Public Years (2007).
- Megan Marshall – author of The Peabody Sisters: Three Women Who Ignited American Romanticism (2005)
- Professor David Robinson – moderator

Our program will also include singing the Margaret Fuller award-winning hymn entitled, New Worlds Manifest.

WORKSHOPS

Memory's Ministry

led by Professor Cynthia Grant Tucker

Friday, June 25, 1:00 to 2:15 pm

Margaret Fuller's bicentennial reminds us of memory's redemptive powers to bring about equality and inclusion. Beginning with Fuller's story, we'll look at methods and implications of gathering oral history, interpreting photographs, and entering the sacred space of letters and diaries.

Led by UU biographer and historian Cynthia Grant Tucker, this workshop will introduce us to "Memory's Ministry." Well known for Prophetic Sisterhood, she most recently published No Silent Witness: The Eliot Parsonage Women and their Unitarian World. She is professor of English at the University of Memphis.

Men, Women, and Margaret Fuller

Thursday, June 24, 2:45 to 4:00 pm

The UU Women's Federation hosts author/actress Laurie James' solo performance, "Men, Women, and Margaret Fuller".
