

Unitarian Universalist Statewide Forum on Immigrant Rights

Saturday, May 10th, 11am-3pm

Where: Arlington Street Church (UU), 351 Boylston Street, Boston (1 block from Arlington Street T stop)
Directions at <http://www.ascboston.org/contact/directions.html>

($11 All day parking at nearby Boston Common Garage; walk across Public Garden to ASC; see www.mccahome.com/bcg.html)

Sponsors & Speakers from
UUA, UUSC, Arlington Street Church Sanctuary & Social Action Committee,
Centro Presente, and MA Interfaith Committee on Worker Justice

Boston Interfaith Community Immigrant Rights March, May 2006, Photo by UU World Editor Chris Walton

- Sharing all of our family immigration stories
- Stories from people who came here from Central America
- Detained – award-winning 20 minute documentary of the New Bedford ICE raid in March 2007
(From ActiveVista Media, directed by Jenny Alexander and produced by Michelle Fuentes)
- What's happening today? What are the economic policies driving immigration?
- What can we do? Learn about Welcoming Massachusetts initiative, the New Sanctuary Movement, moratorium on ICE raids, immigration reform and more!

A Latino lunch will be provided!

Please RSVP to Audra Friend at afriend@uua.org. Be sure to include the name of your congregation and your town or city and put May 10 Immigrant Rights Forum in the subject line.