

UUA Advocacy & Witness

Inspired Faith, Effective Action

UU University: A People So Bold—Justice and Congregational Mission

Thursday: 1:00 - 6:00 and Friday: 8:30 a.m. until noon

Come away with tools and new UUA materials that keep your justice work focused, effective and relevant to the whole congregation and wider community.

*Rev. Meg Riley, Director, Advocacy and Witness, Unitarian Universalist Association
Rev. Louise Green, Minister for Social Justice, All Souls in Washington, DC*

Welcoming Our Neighbors:

The Path to Immigration Reform

Thurs: 10:45 a.m. - noon — Salt Palace - Ballroom ABCD

The lack of humane immigration reform in the U.S has created a permanent underclass without the rights and protections of citizenship. Unjust raids and deportations separate families and sow fear and bigotry. Interfaith Worker Justice, immigrant rights, and congregational leaders share how people of faith can support immigrant communities.

*Rev. Alexia Salvatierra, Exec. Dir. of CLUE-LA and National Coordinator of New Sanctuary Movement
The Rev. Canon Dr. Pablo Ramos, Episcopal Missioner to the Latino community in UT
Rev. Susan Frederick-Gray, Minister, UU Congregation of Phoenix, AZ
Rev. Abhi Janamanchi, Minister, UUs of Clearwater, FL*

UU Secretaries of State

on Strengthening Democracy Now!

Fri: 6:45 p.m. - 8 p.m. — Salt Palace -- Room 251

Join UU California and Minnesota Secretaries of State for a forum on building democracy. Vibrant democracy depends upon an engaged, informed citizenry and electoral integrity. There is much we can do to expand enfranchisement of historically marginalized communities, achieve campaign finance reform, standardize elections, and increase citizen monitoring and participation.

*Debra Bowen, California Secretary of State
Mark Ritchie, Minnesota Secretary of State
Rev. Meg Riley, UUA Advocacy & Witness
Teresa Hommel, Chair, Task Force On Voting Integrity, Community Church of New York*

Valuing ALL Families — An Interfaith Community Witness Event Standing on the Side of Love with Immigrant Families

Join UUA President William Sinkford, Bishop John C. Wester, US Conf. of Catholic Bishops Chair on Migration & Refugees, Latino Missioner of Episcopal Diocese Rev. Canon Dr. Pablo Ramos & Interfaith and Community Leaders

Where: The Gallivan Center Outdoor Plaza
(exit convention center at the 200 South exit and walk left two blocks)
Chairs will be available.

Witness for family values that value ALL families!
Stop the unjust raids and deportation! Enact humane immigration reform!

Environmental Work is Justice Work

Sat: 3:30 p.m. - 4:45 p.m.

UUSC, UUA, and UU Ministry for Earth present on approaching environmental issues from an environmental justice perspective. Learn how, as people of faith, each organization is making EJ a central focus of our work. Share your experiences. Take home tools for advocacy and spiritual practice in your communities and congregations

*Kat Liu, Assistant Director, UUA Washington Office for Advocacy
Claudia Kern, UU Ministry for Earth
Patricia Jones, UUSC Program Manager, Environmental Justice*
