UU congregations have always sought to be effectively internationally engaged. Our faith teaches us that inherent worth and dignity are universal, not national. We've learned that connections with brothers and sisters around the world provide a unique opportunity to build peace and justice, to learn and grow in spirit, and to mentor faithful global citizenship to our children and the world. This workshop is designed to be helpful for congregations of all sizes, and at all stages in their international engagement.

Please register by March 07th through the Ballou Channing District Office: 508-559-6650 or BCDoffice@uua.org. A $10 per person registration fee includes lunch, refreshments and materials.
