

You can make a Difference

Unitarian-run orphanage in Khasi Hills, India to open in fall 2008

- for the benefit of orphaned children from all villages in area
- a joint project between all US churches and friends with partnerships in India and the Unitarian Union of North East India
- opportunities for ongoing relationships through letter exchanges, visits and volunteer arrangements
- loving home in the village of Kharang for children who fall outside of the safety net of the Khasi tribal “social security system” that takes care of its own

For more information (including budgets), contact Catie Scudera – 703-216-9509, catie@gmail.com or Dee Idnani – 703-938-3908, didnani@yahoo.com

Help us with construction costs now, or pledge to sponsor a child in 2008, approximately $650 a year ($325 for co-sponsorship) will pay for each child’s food, clothing, school expenses, medical maintenance, etc.

Checks should be made payable to UUCF (Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Fairfax), putting Orphanage on the memo line but mailed to:

Dee Idnani
10409 Hunter Ridge Drive
Oakton, Va 22124

In this life we cannot do great things. We can only do small things with great love.
- Mother Teresa