

VIDEO & DVD LOAN LIBRARY TO CONGREGATIONS AND DISTRICTS

Club Connect: Racial Sensitivity Test - Exploring racial issues from the teenage perspective. Role playing with teens heighten their sensitivity of racial and ethnic differences. 28 minutes. PBS Video.

Daughter from Dânng – The film cuts between mother and daughter as the two recall the pain of their separation, and retraces Hiep's journey from Vietnam to Pulaski, Tennessee, where she is adopted by a single woman and renamed Heidi. In 1997, Heidi decides to return to Vietnam in search of her mother. In intimate, beautifully shot sequences in Danang, the film follows mother and daughter over the course of their complicated one-week reunion. 83 minutes, PBS Video

Ending Racism – Working for a Racism Free 21st Century – An introduction to help explore racism in the U.S., focusing on the way systemic racism functions in our society – especially on institutional and cultural levels. 35 minutes. Crossroads Anti-Racism Organizing & Training. DVD with Discussion Guide

Eyes on the Prize: America's Civil Rights Years (1954-1966) – An award-winning series produced by Blackside and narrated by Julian Bond. Through contemporary interviews and historical footage, the series covers all of the major events of the civil rights movement from 1954-1966. Six one-hour videos. PBS Video

Eyes on the Prize II: America at the Racial Crossroads (1965-1985) - Powerful! Moving! Continuing from the first series, this brings many important events to life and burns many of the images into your consciousness in a way that books can't do. Eight one-hour videos. PBS Video

Free Indeed - A New York Film Festival finalist, this video drama about racism challenges white viewers to think about the privileges that come with being white in North America. Four white, middle-class young adults play a card game as a prerequisite for doing a service project for a black Baptist church. 23 minutes. Mennonite Central Committee Video

Frontline: A Class Divided - In 1968, the day after Martin Luther King Jr. is assassinated, Jane Elliott, a third grade teacher at a small, all-white elementary school in Iowa divided her class by eye color -- those with blue eyes and those with brown. What happened over the course of the unique two-day exercise astonished both students and teacher. 58 minutes. PBS Video and DVD

Frontline: Color of Your Skin - For 16 weeks, behind a two-way mirror in a small room at the US military's intensive race relations course, a dozen Americans-black, white, and Hispanic-confront each other with their racial anger, pain, and bewilderment. This group's dramatic struggle poses the vital question: can America overcome its racial conflicts and make equality work? 58 minutes. PBS Video

How Open the Door? Black Pioneers in a White Denomination - Created by Carol Lynn Dornbrand in 1985 and based on the work of UU minister Mark Morrison-Reed, particularly his book Black Pioneers in a White Denomination, published by Skinner Press. 35 minutes. UUA Video

Mirrors of Privilege - Making Whiteness Visible - A must-see documentary for all people who are interested in justice, spiritual growth and community making. It features the experiences of white women and men who have worked to gain insight into what it means to challenge notions of racism and white supremacy in the United States." 50 minutes, World Trust DVD with Discussion Guide

VIDEO & DVD LOAN LIBRARY TO CONGREGATIONS AND DISTRICTS

Prime Time: True Colors - In this startling expose, ABC News Prime Time Live anchor, Diane Sawyer explores skin color prejudice in America with the help of two friends virtually identical in all respects but one-- John is white, Glen is black. Together they take part in a series of hidden camera experiments exploring people's reactions to each in a variety of situations. 17 minutes; ABC Video and DVD

Race – The Power of an Illusion - What is this thing called "race?" - a question so basic it is rarely raised. The film reveals that most of our common assumptions about race - for instance, that the world's people can be divided biologically along racial lines - are wrong. Yet the consequences of racism are very real. Three parts, 56 minutes each. California Newsreel. Video and DVD with Discussion Guide

Skin Deep - "Produced/directed by Frances Reid in 1995, Skin Deep chronicles the eye-opening journey of a diverse and divided group of college students as they awkwardly but honestly confront each other's racial prejudices." 53 minutes. DVD

Slave Reparations: The Final Passage - Discover the history and real issues behind today's controversial slave reparations movement. Why do African-Americans represent 13% of the population and own only 3% of the assets? This groundbreaking documentary seeks to address these and other questions. 28 minutes. DVD

The Color of Fear - This insightful, groundbreaking film about the state of race relations in America as seen through the eyes of eight North American men of Asian, European, Latino and African descent, reveals the pain and scars that racism has caused them. What emerges is a deeper sense of understanding and trust. This is the dialogue most of us fear, but hope will happen sometime in our lifetime. 90 minutes. Stir Fry Productions Video

Traces of the Trade: A Story from the Deep North - In the feature documentary, filmmaker Katrina Browne discovers that her New England ancestors were the largest slave-trading family in U.S. history. She and nine cousins retrace the Triangle Trade and gain a powerful new perspective on the black/white divide. 60 minutes. Ebb Pod Productions. DVD

The Way Home – Representing a cross-section of U.S. cultures, sixty-four women come together to share their experiences of oppression through the lens of race. 92 minutes. World Trust Video

What Makes Me White? - How white people form their white racial identity and deal with white privilege is explored in this thought-provoking film produced by Aimee Sands. 15 minutes. DVD

What's Race Got to Do with It? - Subtitled, "Social Disparities and Student Success", the DVD made in 2006 looks at students today born in the post-Civil Rights era, many of whom believe that race is no longer an issue or feel that they've heard it all before. But despite 15 years of diversity programs and initiatives, campuses are still struggling to close achievement gaps, reduce racial disparities and enhance student success for everyone. For a toolkit and Facilitator's Guide go to: www.newsreel.org/nav/title.asp?tc=CN0188. 49 minutes. California Newsreel. DVD

Wilderness Journey: The Struggle for Black Empowerment and Racial Justice within the Unitarian Universalist Association, 1967-1970 - Ron Cordes filmed these interviews of many UU leaders who lived through those complex times and an essential UUA historical record. 76 minutes. UUA DVD. Available for purchase for $5 each or 5 for $20.