

FEMALE SPKR: When people ask me what is Unitarian Universalism, I like to pull out the first principle of the inherent worth and dignity of every person.

MALE SPKR: We have a spectrum theologically that runs from Christianity and Judaism to atheism, agnosticism --

FEMALE SPKR: We're not the kind of church that says if you don't believe in our God, you're going to hell.

MALE SPKR: People who come out of a variety of faiths can come together here knowing that their particular way of understanding truth and meaning will be appreciated and accepted.

FEMALE SPKR: This is a place where you're welcome, where you're invited to a fuller relationship with yourself, with the spirit of life, with other people to build a better world and to build a better you.