Leaders: Liz Strong and Sadie Kahn-Greene. The Rev. Dr. Elizabeth M. Strong has been a Minister of Religious Education 25 years and served congregations in Rochester, New York and Syracuse, New York. For 7 years she was the Religious Education Program Consultant for the Mass Bay District of the UUA. She currently serves as the Interim Minister at First Parish Church, Unitarian Universalist, in Ashby, MA.

Sadie Kahn-Greene is starting her seventh year as the Director of Religious Education at the First Parish Unitarian Universalist Church in Chelmsford, MA. Sadie also served as the young adult coordinator for the Boston Area Unitarian Universalist Young Adults based out of First Church Boston from 2005-2007. Sadie draws from her experience growing up as a Unitarian Universalist, as a young adult, and as an RE professional as well as her studies during the credentialing program to influence her worship planning leadership skills. Sadie co-wrote the workshop "Multigenerational Worship that Works" that she presented with Alice King at LREDA's Fall Conference in 2008.
