Pictures From a Hiroshima Schooyard

Earlier this year, All Souls Church in Washington DC restored WWII-era children's drawings from Hiroshima. These incredible works of art were also on display at General Assembly last summer. A film about the Hiroshima Children's Drawings and their story is now in production, and a website about the film - Pictures from a Hiroshima Schooyard - has recently been updated. Have a look, and enjoy the film's promo! <http://bit.ly/HiroshimaDrawings>

Videoconferencing With Students in Mexico

Tom Cartwright, an American Unitarian Universalist living in Mexico, has established opportunities for professional video-conferencing experiences that he would like to open to UU Religious Education classes.

Dialog by video-conference between an RE class in your congregation and a panel of university students in Mexico provides an experiential and human component to your exploration of Multiculturalism. Discussions are governed by a purpose statement and a pre-defined content outline, established in advance with direct input from U.S. religious educators.

Global Chalice Lighting

This Global Chalice Lighting, in Hungarian and English, is to be used during February 2010.

Hungarian

Ti vagytok a világ világossága. Nem rejtethetik el a hegyen épített város. Gyertyát sem azért gyújtanak, hogy a véka alá, hanem hogy a gyertyatartóba tegyék és fényljk mindazoknak, a kik a házban vannak. Úgy fényljk a ti világosságtok az emberek elott, hogy lássák a ti jó cselekedeteiteket, és dicsoítsék a ti mennyei Atyátokat.

English

You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden; nor does anyone light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.
