

Unitarian Universalist Addictions Ministry

The holiday season comes with its own challenges for all – but for those in alcohol and addiction recovery it can be a time that calls for extra strength and hope.

The Addictions Ministry offers resources and information to support reflection and transparency, and to help those with addictions, their families, and their communities along the path to recovery.

Check out the new website at

<http://www.uua.org/leaders/leaderslibrary/addictionsministry/>

For more information, email addictions@uua.org