

One and One

One Action and One Tool from the UUA Ministries and Faith Development Staff Group

One and One is produced by the UUA Ministries and Faith Development Staff Group. In this simple weekly brief, busy Unitarian Universalist Professionals will find one exciting thing going on at the UUA, and one useful tool. Please submit content ideas or feedback to one-and-one@uaa.org.

One Thing Going On

Keep Talking, Start Doing

We are people who have always affirmed human diversity.

We have always looked to the future and seen new possibilities.

We must do so again.

—UUA President Peter Morales

We are delighted to announce that “Keep Talking, Start Doing: Ten Ways to Deepen Your Congregation’s Multiculturalism Journey,” a compelling new resource from Multicultural Growth & Witness, is now available! Find it here.

This brief, straightforward guide offers concrete suggestions that you can start using today in order to take measurable steps on your congregation’s journey toward its multicultural future.

As Unitarian Universalists, our ministries center around expanding our capacity to welcome and include people of diverse identities within our traditions and communities. Whether you’re beginning this journey or you’ve been on the path for many years, this resource will give you tools to help you do, or continue, intentional work within your community around anti-racism, anti-oppression, and multiculturalism.

One Useful Tool

Beacon Broadside

Beacon Broadside, a project of Beacon Press, is an online venue for essays, news items, and dispatches from respected writers, thinkers, and activists about our times. From education to civil rights to medicine and more, Beacon Press publishes books on some of the most important and controversial issues that we face as a nation. The Broadside is like icing on the cake. Here you will find timely and digestible resources related to topics in Beacon books, with multimedia clips and links to further explorations of the news that really matters

A recent edition from August 19 is a great example of why you should regularly check in with the Beacon Broadside. Struggling to make sense of the blockbuster movie and book “The Help?” Click here for a cogent analysis from the Association of Black Women Historians, as well as a bibliography of books that go deeper in their exploration of race, history and literature.

Other recent posts: Sea kayaking to learn about Global Climate Change, MLK and the Montgomery years, and Rick Perry’s Prayer-Fest.
