

NOW IS THE TIME –
Leading Congregations
Into a Multiracial, Multicultural Future

PLAN AHEAD!

The success of the February 2007 national conference has reinforced how essential it is for UUs to continue with this important work as we seek to build just and inclusive communities through our commitment that is rooted in Unitarian Universalist identity, theology, and values.

- In a world of blue and red states, of the radical right and far left, of fundamentalism and apathy; in a world where “the other” is distrusted and feared
- In a world in need of the hope that beloved community can be made more real by human intention and conscious faithfulness
- In this world where Unitarian Universalists are called to affirm and promote respect, justice, interdependence and to honor many sources of wisdom and truth

In this world it is always the time for us to learn, to lead, to grow

The UUA will be again organize a NOW IS THE TIME conference in the early spring of 2008 and the early spring of 2009. Join other congregational leaders from throughout the United States as we explore together what we can do to lead

CONSIDER HOW YOUR CONGREGATION WILL SELECT AND FINANCIALLY SUPPORT PARTICIPATION OF YOUR LEADERS IN ONE OF THESE UPCOMING CONFERENCES.

To learn more about the February 2007 event, email congservices@uua.org. Detailed information regarding location, dates and cost of the 2008 conference will be available in the autumn of 2007.
