

UUA/UUSC sponsored GA Justice Training Events

Learn how we can raise our voices and carry a message for peace into the 2008 elections and beyond.

COUNTDOWN 2008: An Activist Training to Responsibly End the War in Iraq

Wed. June 25, 2008
Noon - 4 p.m.

Participants will get updated policy information, as well as practical tools and skills for taking effective action.

Speakers

Camilo Mejía, Iraq War Veteran, Founder of Iraq Veterans Against the War

Tom Andrews, Former Congressman, National Director of Win Without War

Rev. William Sinkford, President of the UUA

Charlie Clements, President of UUSC

Panorama Ballroom
Hyatt Regency Pier 66
2301 S.E. 17th Street
Fort Lauderdale, FL 33316

UUSC is hosting the training free of charge, but space is limited. UU university attendees welcome to arrive at their convenience. Lunch will be provided. To register, please contact Michele Rudy at gacountdown2008@uusuc.org.

Super Sessions:
Double-length workshops on concrete strategic planning, organizing,
advocacy, media, and mobilization skills!

Thursday 6/26
3:15 – 6:15 p.m.
and

Saturday 6/28
1:30 – 4:30 p.m.

Workshops will be held simultaneously during both slots.

Organizing, Advocacy and Voter Mobilization: Faithful Democracy 2008

This workshop will cover relevant IRS guidelines, organizing strategies, and best practices for voter education and mobilization work. It will feature Kindra Mutz, president of Sarasota Alliance for Fair Elections (SAFE) and award-winning UU voting-rights activist from Florida!

Location: Convention Center – Floridian D

Public Witness for Congregations: Inspired Faith, Effective Action

Learn how to form strategic partnerships, engage in high-visibility advocacy efforts, and attract the attention of media outlets. We'll learn from successful examples of work on issues such as marriage equality, war resistance, and racial justice.

Location: Convention Center – Palm A

