What: A training developed as part of a partnership between the UUA's Lifespan Faith Development Staff Group and the Interfaith Youth Core. This partnership was made possible by a generous grant from the Shelter Rock Large Grant Fund. Developed specifically for UU youth and adults who work with youth, this training will equip teams with the skills needed to return to their congregations and districts and be leaders in the interfaith youth movement.

When: January 15-18, 2010

Who: Teams of 1 youth and 1 adult are strongly encouraged to apply together. Individuals are also encouraged to apply, but teams will be given selection priority.

How: Space is limited. Applications are available at www.uua.org/interfaithyouth. All selected participants will have their airfare, food, and lodging paid. There is no registration fee for this training.
