“The teacher is no longer merely the-one-who-teaches, but one who is himself taught in dialogue with the students, who in turn while being taught also teach. They become jointly responsible for a process in which all grow.”

-- from Pedagogy of the Oppressed, Chapter 2

Paulo Freire

Angus MacLean:

- promoted a child-centered and experience-centered, rather than a Bible-centered, approach.
- how religion is taught is more important than what is taught.

“the method is the message”
