2014 Annual Report

Seven Principles

There are seven principles which Unitarian Universalist (UU) congregations affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Unitarian Universalism draws from many sources:

- Direct experience of that transcending mystery and wonder, affirmed in all cultures, which moves us to a renewal of the spirit and an openness to the forces which create and uphold life;
- Words and deeds of prophetic women and men which challenge us to confront powers and structures of evil with justice, compassion, and the transforming power of love;
- Wisdom from the world's religions which inspires us in our ethical and spiritual life;
- Jewish and Christian teachings which call us to respond to God's love by loving our neighbors as ourselves;
- Humanist teachings which counsel us to heed the guidance of reason and the results of science, and warn us against idolatries of the mind and spirit;
- Spiritual teachings of earth-centered traditions which celebrate the sacred circle of life and instruct us to live in harmony with the rhythms of nature.

These principles and sources of faith are the backbone of our religious community.

A Letter from the President

Dear Friend,

I am delighted to present the annual report of the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA) for fiscal year 2013-2014 (FY14). This year has been filled with adventures and challenges as your UUA works with congregations and communities to amplify Unitarian Universalism's strong liberal progressive religious voice.

FY14 was a year of remarkable change for the UUA, especially in Boston, as we bade farewell to our Beacon Hill offices, and transitioned to our new headquarters space at 24 Farnsworth Street. Our new offices are welcoming, accessible, and modern. Innovation and collaboration are nurtured in this environment. We've settled in well and look forward to welcoming you.

Our public witness efforts were highlighted nationally in February in New York at the Mass Moral March where we showed up with our interfaith partners and tens of thousands against legislative oppression and racism. Voting rights are under attack and being denied in many states. Our work for equality and democracy continues.

In June, we met in Providence, Rhode Island, for General Assembly (GA). Delegates from our congregations voted and decided to divest from fossil fuels. The UUA's leadership and influence for policy change through shareholder advocacy on this issue and other remains admired and very active. The Waterfire public witness event gave us an opportunity to express our faith to locals in new ways. And Unitarian Universalists demonstrated great confidence in our work. In fact, this was our most generous GA ever with record financial support of our faith, our ministries, and local nonprofits.

We have accomplished much this year. This annual report highlights just some of the programs, projects, and initiatives that have helped to spread our values and principles in the world. As you read about these accomplishments, know that your support has helped to make each of them possible. I extend my deepest gratitude to you for contributing in many ways to the work of the UUA. You are making a difference.

In faith,

The Rev. Peter Morales

President of the Unitarian Universalist Association

Support For Ministers & Congregations

Our congregations and ministers are at the heart of Unitarian Universalism. This year, we worked to meet the needs of local congregations and individual ministers, religious educators, musicians, and lay leaders.

Minister Credentialing

58 candidates came before the Ministerial Fellowship Committee in the 2013-2014 year. Approximately 640 people are currently at some stage of preparation for UU ministry. During FY14, 48 ministers were settled in congregations. Thanks to donor support, ministers are credentialed, provided with benefits, and eligible for assistance during crisis.

Summer Seminary

In August, 2013 the Youth and Young Adults office hosted the first annual Summer Seminary. Sixteen incredible Unitarian Universalist high school students from across the country came together to explore a calling to professional ministry in our faith.

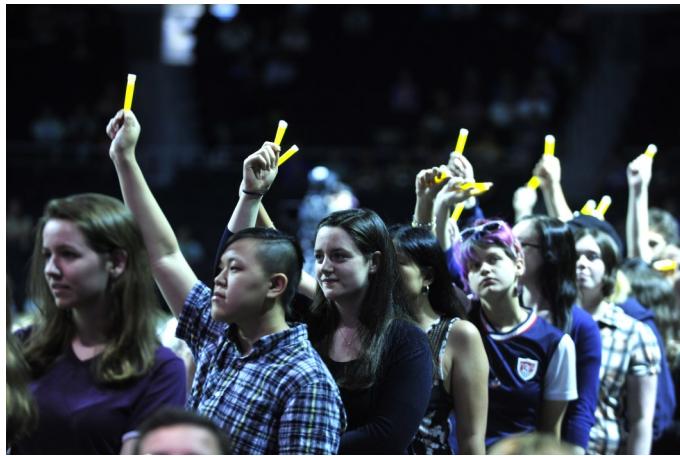

Summer Seminary offered these youth an opportunity to ponder their own sense of calling and mission, learn about the process for applying and attending theological school, and meet with ministers, religious educators, and activists to hear about their lives as religious professionals.

Innovative Learning Circles

The Office of Growth Strategies facilitated a second year of Innovative Learning Circles. This is an online peer support system where our tradition's most innovative leaders can gather to spark, inspire, and cross-pollinate each other. In FY14, 52 participants from 45 congregations participated in 9 different circles focusing on topics such as campus ministry, humanism, prison ministries, multisite ministries, emerging congregations, and more. The Innovative Learning Circles program will continue to grow in future years.

Act & Lead for Social Justice

The UUA provides a progressive religious voice on the national stage. We are uniquely poised to share our message of love and respect for all people, and to work for a more compassionate world community.

At General Assembly, delegates decided to take a stand for environmental justice, and voted for the UUA to divest from fossil fuel companies.

Hundreds of Unitarian Universalists traveled to New York City to participate in the Mass Moral March to protect voting rights. Others participated in marches and protests around the country.

Immigration Reform was a key priority for the UUA in Fiscal Year 2014. UUs made sure that our voice was heard on this important issue. At a rally in Washington D.C. many risked arrest to demand reform, and our own UUA President, Rev. Peter Morales, was arrested.

In fiscal year 2014, we made strides toward marriage equality, with more and more states now offering legal marriage to same-sex couples. Our years of work to change hearts and minds helped lead to a wave of court cases which were decided in favor of equality.

The UUA was part of two amicus curiae briefs in support of reproductive justice for Supreme Court cases. UUs marched in front of the court in order to show our support for reproductive choice.

A Generous General Assembly

This year was our most generous GA ever, with UUs donating half a million dollars in support of Unitarian Universalism. We celebrated generosity at the Brave Souls event, and a few UUs even went over the edge for our faith.

We also asked you to be bold and make a pledge to incorporate more generosity into your life. As you read through the names of the generous congregations and individual donors in this report, you will see some of these Brave Pledges.

Annual Program Fund & GIFT

We give so that our spirits will be enriched by the practice of generosity in community, and so that Unitarian Universalism can flourish.

The Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA) is an association of congregations in covenant, and the Annual Program Fund (GIFT in the Southern Region) is how those congregations support each other. The Annual Program Fund is the primary source of unrestricted funding for the UUA and the programs and services that strengthen Unitarian Universalism and support our larger faith.

When we support the Annual Program Fund and GIFT, we are supporting congregations in our own districts, regions, and far beyond. We give so that all of our congregations are positioned to transform their communities, so that our religious leaders can innovate and inspire, and so that our collective voice can be amplified to bring more justice to the world so in need of our healing message.

Thank you to all of our congregations for your generous contributions, which make a difference in our religious community and strengthen our covenant.

Generously Investing for Tomorrow (GIFT)

For Fiscal Year 2014, our Southern Region began a pilot program called Generously Investing for Tomorrow (GIFT). This program combined the ask for the UUA Annual Program Fund and Southern Region support so that congregations make one pledge instead of two. Each congregation's contribution request is based on a fixed percentage of their certified expenditures rather than membership totals.

The GIFT program was designed to be a simpler and more equitable contribution structure for Southern Region congregations. It is meant to encourage congregational growth and be more responsive to congregations who may be facing financial difficulty.

In implementing this new program, both UUA and Southern Region staff have learned a great deal. Thank you to all of the congregations who have participated and provided feedback throughout the process. We look forward to continuing to grow and improve the GIFT program with you.

Southern Region Congregations who participated in the GIFT program are shown in LIGHT BLUE in the following Honor Congregation lists.

Legacy Giving

Mary-Ella Holst

Mary-Ella Holst of New York City is an active Unitarian Universalist leader. She serves many organizations with her passion for teaching, history, and fundraising, including her home congregation of All Souls in New York, the UUA, the UUSC, the UU Women's Federation, and the Murray Grove Retreat and Conference Center.

Teaching religious education classes for years and then going on to serve as the Director of Religious Education until her retirement in 1987, Mary-Ella recently celebrated 50 years of membership at the Unitarian Church of All Souls. She currently serves All Souls as President of the Historical Society.

Over the years, Mary-Ella has given several generous life-income gifts for the benefit of the Unitarian Universalist Association and many of the other UU organizations she loves. "I chose to leave legacy gifts for both emotional and practical reasons. My giving reflects my focus within Unitarian Universalism; a focus on women, social justice, history, and my own community." Giving through the UUA's Charitable Annuity Program is the practical side of the equation, Mary-Ella states. "I receive a much appreciated, generous, and guaranteed payment every three months, plus there were significant tax benefits!"

Mary-Ella's respect for our religious heritage has inspired much of her work and generosity. Her commitment to this heritage is extended through her legacy giving and belief in the promise of Unitarian Universalism. With a confident smile, Mary-Ella says, "I trust the future."

In Memoriam

Paul Pfeiffer, Jr. and Jane Grey Pfeiffer

Devoted Unitarian Universalists and long-time members of All Souls Church Unitarian in Washington, D.C., Paul Pfeiffer, Jr., 99, and Jane Grey Pfeiffer, 92, passed away within a month of each other in the Spring of 2013. The Pfeiffers met each other while attending All Souls in the 1940's and created a marriage lasting 52 years.

Born in Evansville, Indiana, Paul served in the Navy during World War II, including the battles of Leyte Gulf and Okinawa. Later, Paul served as Deputy Director of the Office of the Industrial Development of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

After 30 years in government service, Paul co-founded, with his wife, Exacta Business Services which provided editing, financial, and office services to Washington companies.

Jane Grey Wheeler was born in Summit, New Jersey. After earning her master's degree in 1943, Jane worked as the research assistant to Ralph Bunche, U.S. representative to the United Nations and the first African American to win the Nobel Peace Prize.

Jane also worked as the administrative and research assistant to the Rev. A. Powell Davies during his time as minister of All Souls Church assisting in his civil rights work and church expansion initiatives.

Later, Jane practiced the healing arts of massage therapy and Reiki. She headed the Healing Program at the Institute for Spiritual Development. The Institute ordained her as a minister in 1997.

Both Paul and Jane were community organizers, dedicated volunteers, and important leaders in their congregation and other charitable organizations. Their lives are a testament to the UU values of justice, pluralism, and generosity both within the church and in the larger community.

The Pfeiffers' generous legacy gifts to the UUA, the UUSC, and their beloved home congregation will continue to support the health and vitality of Unitarian Universalism into the future. The values to which Paul and Jane committed their lives will continue to live on in the faith they loved.

UU Veatch Program at Shelter Rock

The UU Veatch Program at Shelter Rock supports organizations that put Unitarian Universalist principles into practice. It draws upon a generous bequest from Caroline Veatch and fund Unitarian Universalist and community organizations working on a variety of issues across the country.

Funding provided by the UU Veatch Program at Shelter Rock is essential for the UUA to tackle the greatest challenges of our time—allowing us to create and promote resources, support congregations, and be the public voice of our shared principles. Our deepest gratitude goes to the UU Veatch Program at Shelter Rock for all their generous support!

Matching Gift Challenge

This year, the UU Veatch Program at Shelter Rock issued a challenge to our donors: they would match every dollar donated between February and June, 2014. Thanks to your generosity, we met our goal and received a matching gift of $100,000 from the UU Veatch Program at Shelter Rock to support our congregations and to promote Unitarian Universalist principles in the world.

President's Council

The UUA President's Council was established in 1992 to provide the President of the UUA with suggestions and feedback on stewardship of our Association and the movement, to provide counsel and leadership for Association resource development efforts, and to help increase support of the UUA and its programs through advocacy with individuals and congregations. We are very grateful for the Council's time, dedication, and support for the Association!
