Closing Reading by Wm. Sloane Coffin

"Why do academics believe not so much in right thinking as in rational control, insisting that the cognitive is intrinsically divided against the emotional, spiritual and active dimensions of human existence? Vulnerability is the precondition to wisdom. Vulnerability is the precondition to freedom and wholeness. What a place a university would be if we defined education as a process to help young people to mature into vulnerability. Descartes was mistaken when he said 'I think, therefore I am.' Nonsense. 'I love, therefore I am.' It is better not to live than not to love."
