JOB OPENING

► MUSIC DIRECTOR

Seeking a Music Director to support the mission of this vibrant Westborough Unitarian Universalist church in the area of music, coordinating the musical life of the congregation during the regular church year which runs from the Sunday after Labor Day through mid-June. The Music Director will work with the Music Committee, the minister, and church staff to provide interesting and varied music of high quality that generally supports the worship themes of Sunday services.

The candidate must be an accomplished organist and pianist able to play a variety of styles of music as well as being an experienced choral director. Instruments are an 1895 George H. Ryder tracker pipe organ and a 1916 Chickering grand piano. The choir performs 3-4 times a month. There are occasional special music programs. The position opens September 2017. Compensation is according to the experience of the candidate and the guidelines of the Unitarian Universalist Association.
