

Murray Grove:

sacred space, historic site of John Murray's first Universalist sermon on this continent, retreat center where people gather to get in touch with their roots, themselves and one another

For over twenty years Murray Grove has sponsored the John Murray Distinguished Lecture at General Assembly. The mission of the Lecture is to explore how Universalism contributes to the Unitarian Universalism of today. It is funded, in part, by the New York State Convention of Universalists and the Pennsylvania Universalist Convention.

The Murray Grove Association exists as a living memorial to the life and the Universalist faith of John Murray and Thomas Potter, not only for the benefit of Unitarian Universalists, but also for our friends and neighbors who seek to give to the world hope and courage: to enliven the legacy of Universalism by preserving the historical grounds of Murray Grove and by promoting the union of faith, love and action as inspired foundations of our beloved community.

This Universalist landmark is located near the Jersey shore, a 90 minute drive south of New York and east of Philadelphia: open year-round.

Thank you to the New York State Convention of Universalists and the Pennsylvania Universalist Convention for their support of the 2013 John Murray Distinguished Lecture
