

The Unitarian Universalist Association offers a variety of scholarship resources to support the growth and excellence of Unitarian Universalist ministry. The source of these funds includes the St. Lawrence Foundation for Theological Education, the Living Tradition Fund, capital campaign funds and various UUA scholarship trust funds, some of which are designated for aspirants and candidates of color and/or individuals from historically marginalized groups.

In 2020, the UUA Scholarship Committee awarded over $150,000 and we look forward to continuing this tradition.

Financial aid grants are determined by the UUA Scholarship Committee. In accordance with the UUA Strategic Plan for Professional Ministries, scholarship funds have been targeted to promising and diverse aspirants and candidates.

If you are planning to apply for financial aid from the UUA, please read over the following guidelines and instructions carefully. It is your responsibility to make sure that all forms and letters of reference are received by the Ministerial Credentialing Office (MCO) by 8 pm EST, Thursday, April 15, 2021. Every item MUST be in possession of the Ministerial Credentialing Office by that date and time. Individuals who apply for a scholarship will be notified of the decision by May 22, 2021.

Incomplete applications will not be considered by the UUA Scholarship Committee. You may check the status of your application materials by contacting the Ministerial Credentialing Office at mco@uua.org.

ELIGIBILITY FOR AID:

Unless otherwise specified, information and applications for financial aid can be obtained by contacting the Ministerial Credentialing Office. In the past, applications that have demonstrated the highest merit, rather than financial need, have received scholarships.

To be eligible to apply for UUA financial aid grants, applicants must be in aspirant or candidate status, be half-time or full-time in seminary, and will be attending seminary in the upcoming academic year, except for scholarships that are granted only to incoming first-year students (Chuck and Nancy Thomas Scholarship).

Please note that some scholarships are restricted to those in candidate status by the donor. Those serving in an internship are also eligible to apply, even if they will not be enrolled in theological school during the internship. Interns in congregations funded by an Internship Stipend Grant may have their financial aid award adjusted.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

- 1) Please complete a three to four-page double-spaced essay incorporating the following questions: What do you believe is the greatest challenge facing Unitarian Universalism today? How do you plan to engage this challenge in your future ministry? How does your social location inform your planning?
- 2) Please describe your call to the Unitarian Universalist ministry (250 words).
- 3) Please submit your résumé (no more than three pages).
- 4) Please fill out the Financial Aid Application, Annual Expenses, and Net Worth forms.
- 5) Please have your financial aid officer fill out the specified form of the 2021-2022 Financial Aid Application.
- 6) Please have a Unitarian Universalist minister in full fellowship (but not a faculty member from your theological school) fill out a recommendation letter form.
- 7) Please have your faculty advisor or other faculty member fill out a recommendation letter form.
- 8) Except for Canadian citizens (and those who are in internship who are not students) please submit a Student Aid Report \(SAR*\) containing a calculation of the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) obtainable from one's theological school upon completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) forms available on the web

(<http://www.fafsa.ed.gov>) or from the U.S. Department of Education. Note that the SAR can take up to two weeks for processing. The final report MUST be received by the MCO or your financial aid application will not be considered.

- 9) All forms and all supporting materials MUST be received by the Ministerial Credentialing Office, 24 Farnsworth St., Boston, MA 02210-1409 or sent to mco@uua.org no later than 8 pm EST, Thursday April 15, 2021. *E-mail submission of material is preferred.

(Please note the 8 pm EST, Friday, March 26, 2021 deadline for the Rev. Chuck and Nancy Thomas Scholarship, described below.)

Applicants for financial aid are automatically considered for most of the UUA's named scholarships. Please refer to the addendum for more information. Additional application materials are only required for the two scholarships described below.

The Olympia Brown and Max Kapp Award

This award is given to an aspirant or candidate who submits a paper, sermon, or other special project on some aspect of Universalism, and should honor our Universalist heritage and the St. Lawrence Foundation, the source of a significant portion of our scholarship funds. Eligibility for this award is as the same for financial aid. Manuscripts should accompany the financial aid forms and be submitted to the Ministerial Credentialing Office by 8 pm EST, Thursday, April 15, 2021. The winning submission will be posted as a link on the website of the St. Lawrence Foundation.

Scholarship for Incoming First Year Seminarists Only

The Rev. Chuck and Nancy Thomas Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1998 by Lorella and Todd Hess in honor of Lorella's father, the Rev. Charles Thomas, and his support of Unitarian Universalism and lay leadership. Rev. Thomas retired as the Minister of the Unitarian Universalist Church in Lima, OH in 2014. The scholarship is awarded to a first-year student who has shown an outstanding commitment to Unitarian Universalism as a lay leader before preparing for ordained ministry.

To apply, please submit to the address below, two letters of recommendation, a résumé, and a two or three page essay that describes your path to seminary in which you highlight your work as a lay leader in your congregation and larger community. If you are not a member of a UUA or CUC congregation, at least one recommendation letter must be from an official of your local ICUU member group.*

Letters of recommendation should show a connection between the individual's ministry and their life goals along with examples of their strong leadership skills.*

Please submit to the UUA Ministerial Credentialing Office, Rev. Chuck and Nancy Thomas Scholarship, 24 Farnsworth Street, Boston MA, 02210-1409.

All materials MUST be received by 8 pm EST, Friday, March 26, 2021.

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST ASSOCIATION NAMED SCHOLARSHIPS

The Martha and Robert Atherton Ministerial Scholarship

Established in 1997, this scholarship is designed to provide financial assistance to promising ministerial students in their 2nd or 3rd year of seminary who have already proven their capabilities. This scholarship is awarded to individuals who respect hard work as a foundation of a full life and appreciate the freedom, political system, and philosophical underpinnings of our country. Dedicated Unitarian Universalists Martha and Robert Atherton have established this scholarship through their generous contributions.

The David Eaton Scholarship

Maurine Mulliner, a long-time member of All Soul's Church in Washington DC, made an estate gift to affirm Rev. David Eaton's vision of a community dedicated to strengthening hope, justice and balance, and creating an anti-racist, multi-cultural religious organization and country. This scholarship is awarded to women from a historically marginalized group who share the same vision as Rev. David Eaton.

Lucille K. and Jerome P. Gallon Scholarship Fund

The Lucille K. and Jerome P. Gallon Scholarship fund was created to support promising candidates for Unitarian Universalist ministry. This scholarship is awarded to individuals who have demonstrated strong preaching skills during their path to ministry.

The Ingeborg Haseltine Scholarship Fund

Ingeborg Haseltine made a gift from her estate to establish a permanent scholarship and aid fund to support the education of women pursuing a career in the Unitarian Universalist ministry.

Interfaith Spirituality Scholarship

This scholarship was established by a generous anonymous donor. The purpose is to support candidates who have demonstrated an interest in and are prepared to integrate interfaith understanding into their ministry and have a commitment to guiding others on their own spiritual paths.

The Susan M. Jackson Ministerial Scholars Fund

Susan M. Jackson's children established this fund on Ms. Jackson's 85th birthday to honor her commitment and dedication to Unitarian Universalism. This scholarship is awarded to recipients who share with the wider world their enthusiasm about UU ideas and conclusions, drawn from their faith, which influence their lives.

The David Pohl Scholarship

This scholarship was established by the Unitarian Universalist Association upon Rev. David Pohl's retirement as UUA Director of Ministry in 1993. It supports the intellectual, spiritual, and professional development of individuals studying for UU ministry.

The Roy H. Pollack Scholarship

The Roy H. Pollack Scholarship was created in 1998 to support second- or third-year students who have strong academic records and are promising candidates for the UU ministry.

The Rhys Williams Ministerial Scholarship

This scholarship honors the legacy of the Rev. Rhys Williams and supports candidates seeking fellowship as a Unitarian Universalist parish minister.

The Von Ogden Vogt Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 2001 by Walter and Carlyn Vogt to honor Walter's father, the Rev. Dr. Von Ogden Vogt and his dedication and commitment to Unitarian Universalism. Scholarships are given to support the intellectual, spiritual, and professional development of future Unitarian Universalist ministers who are attending Meadville Lombard Theological School.

The John A. Buehrens Ministerial Scholarship

The Rev. Dr. John A. Buehrens, President of the Unitarian Universalist Association from 1993-2001, has made enormous contributions to the life of this institution and to the Unitarian Universalist movement as a whole. To recognize and honor his work, the UUA has established a permanent fund to support the intellectual, spiritual, and professional development of future Unitarian Universalist ministers studying at the Starr King School for the Ministry. One scholarship is for an incoming first year student, and the other is for a student, in candidate status, entering their second or third year of study. Starr King School for the Ministry selects the incoming first year student. The UUA selects the second, or third year student.

The President William G. Sinkford Scholarship

The Unitarian Universalist Association established the President William G. Sinkford Fund in 2008, during the last year of Rev. Sinkford's UUA Presidency. Rev. Sinkford left the Association with many profound and lasting gifts including the innovative Diversity of Ministry Initiative and support for lay theological education and ministerial development programs. To honor his legacy in the years to come, the Sinkford Fund will further Rev. Sinkford's visions by providing scholarships for promising and passionate students preparing for Unitarian Universalist ministry. Scholarships are designed for those in candidate status who identify as people of color, Latinx, Hispanic, and/or multiracial.

Finally, to contribute to efforts to make more UUA Scholarship Funds available for promising UU seminarians, please contact Cheri Taylor at ctaylor@uua.org in Stewardship and Development at (617) 948-6510.
