

Suggested Religious Educator Professional Formation Map

This Professional Formation Map represents one way to navigate the trainings available to religious educators. Each professional is encouraged to discern their professional development needs, according to their background and ministry context. The Professional Development Programs Manager would be happy to converse with you in your discernment process, if it would be of help.