

2022 CERTIFICATION
JANUARY 3, 2022 – FEBRUARY 4, 2022

Annual Certification

Worksheet to help congregations
prepare for certification questions

Introduction

As congregations begin gathering in traditional and new ways, we recognize that it may be difficult to accurately answer many of the certification questions. Congregations are encouraged to answer questions as best you can as it's important for the UUA to get a picture of what's happening within our congregations, especially now.

Each year, member congregations report annual membership, financial and other data figures to the UUA through the certification process. The UUA uses this information to determine Annual Program Fund (APF) contributions, proportional delegates for elections and General Assembly, and to compile data about overall indicators and trends within Unitarian Universalism.

Thank you for your help in making this year's certification a success. If you have feedback or suggestions about the updated process, please email data_services@uua.org. We look forward to hearing how we can improve this process.

For more information, visit uua.org/certify.

Accessing Certification

Rather than requiring a password, anyone from your congregation who has the secure link to your unique page can input information. Secure links to your unique account page will be sent via email to the congregational data administrator. You can fill out each section independently, and your account page will tell you when each section is complete.

If you did not receive a secure link email data_services@uua.org and include your name, congregation, and role within the congregation or go to uua.org/certify and log in to your congregation's Data Services account.

2022 Updates

New/Revised questions

Section 4: Participation questions continue to evolve as congregations go from being fully virtual to in person and multiplatform. We are now asking for total participation through all channels as well as what percentage is from virtual/online participation.

Section 5: Question 6 no longer open ended. Please select all that apply.

Section 6: Several opened ended questions have been changed to “select all that apply” option lists and a question related to bridging has been added to help the Office of Lifespan Faith Engagement anticipate and support these communities.

Removed questions

Section 6 A one-time question from the Article 2 Commission as well as three pandemic specific questions around PPP loans were removed.

How to use this worksheet

Print a copy of this worksheet and use it to gather the information that is needed to certify your congregation’s information. All information must be submitted online by the deadline: Friday, February 4, 2022 at 5 p.m. PT.

To submit this information, go to uua.org/certify and log in to your congregation’s Data Services account and submit your data online before the deadline.

The annual Certification for congregations includes six sections:

1. Congregation Directory Listing – Verify your congregation’s information is correct in the Find-a-Congregation Directory on UUA.org.
2. Leaders Listing – Verify your congregation’s contacts are correct.

3. Financial Statistics – Provide your Total Expenses and other financial statistics from your congregation’s recently-ended fiscal year.
4. Membership and Attendance – Update your membership, attendance, and demographic statistics to reflect current totals.
5. Diversity Questionnaire – Take a brief survey on the makeup of your congregation & leadership to support racial, ethnic, and cultural diversity reporting.
6. Congregational Questionnaire – A survey of questions to help the UUA gain a sense of what is important in the life of your congregation, what services and resource you utilize, and how we can help support your work.

Use the following pages of this Worksheet to review questions and collect information from each of these sections before submitting them online.

Section 1: Congregation Directory Listing

Verify that the UUA has your congregation’s current location and contact information on file. This information appears on the Find-a-Congregation page on UUA.org for visitors.

In this section of the annual inventory, you will be asked to review basic contact information about your congregation and update any of it if necessary. These items include the congregation’s name, mailing address, meeting address, business phone, business email, website, and accessibility information.

Section 2: Congregation Leaders Listing

Verify that the UUA knows who your congregation’s current leadership is. Keeping this information updated ensures your congregation’s leaders are receiving updates and resources from the UUA.

This listing dictates who’s authorized to make changes and access information about your congregation. Administrators, Presidents, Treasurers, & Ministers receive full access to MyUUA, Certification, Credentialing, and Ministry Search systems. These leaders along with other positions are listed publicly on UUA.org's Find-a-Congregation search tool.

In this section you are asked to provide the name, role, and contact information for each person who is in one of the following roles: Administrator, Director of Music, Minister, President, Religious Educator, Treasurer, & Vice President.

NOTE: You can manage other roles and positions in your congregation along with congregational members via MyUUA. <https://my.uua.org>

Section 3: Financials

Your congregation will be asked to submit financial statistics from your congregation's most recently-ended fiscal year. (For example, if your congregation runs a July-June fiscal year, you should be reporting all financial information as related to the time period July 1, 2020-June 30, 2021). These figures are used to calculate Annual Program Fund requests and to provide the UUA and regional staff a gauge on the financial health of congregations. Use the notes that appear after the table below for explanations as to how to answer each of the eight Financials questions.

1. Total Expenses
2. Denominational Contributions ONLY
3. Capital Expenses ONLY
4. Total Pledge Income
5. Total Individual and Family Pledging Units
6. Rent or Own Primary Facility
7. Rental/Building Use Income
8. Endowment and Reserves
9. Long-Term Debt

1. Total Expenses: Include all costs of running your congregation for one year, such as salaries and wages, rent, mortgage payments, insurance, legal fees, utilities, supplies, denominational contributions, and capital expenses.
2. Denominal Contributions: Please provide the amount contributed to the Annual Program Fund in your most recently closed fiscal year.
3. Capital Expenses: Of the expenses listed above, how much was from capital expenses? What's considered a capital expense varies, but could include mortgage principal, or other capital expenditures not related to regular expenses. Rental fees are NOT considered capital expenses.
4. Total Pledge Income: The total amount of formal pledges that were given by members and friends.
5. Total Number of Individual and Family Units Making Formal Pledges: Many families are considered a single pledge unit. However, if John Smith pledges $1,000, and his spouse pledges $1,000, and the pledges are recorded separately, then they should be counted as two pledging units.
6. Does your congregation own or rent its primary facility?
7. Rental/Building Use Income – What is the income (if any) the congregation generated from building rentals and use fees by outside parties?
8. What is the dollar value of your congregation's endowment and reserves at the close of its last fiscal year?
 - Endowment – Funds held in long-term investment accounts including restricted, unrestricted, and board-restricted funds. The funds may be in accounts directly held by the congregation or in separate entities such as foundations or trusts established primarily for the benefit of the congregation.
 - Reserves – Funds held for emergencies, future building projects, and/or capital improvements but not for regular operations.
9. How much did your congregation owe in long-term debt at the close of its last fiscal year? (Including mortgages, bank debt with multi-year payment schedules, and bonds or loans from congregants and friends. This does not include credit card debt or other loans due in one year or less).

Section 4: Membership

Your congregation is asked to submit its current membership count and attendance statistics. These figures provide the UUA and regions with data on Unitarian Universalist growth and participation. See below for how to answer these membership questions.

Number of Members
Number of Total Members (for Multi-Denominational/ Federated Congregations Only)
Non-Member Friends
Total Participation – ALL AGES
All Ages Virtual Participation Percentage
Participation – Children & Youth ONLY
Children & Youth Virtual Participation Percentage
Religious Education Enrollment

1. Current Members: This should be your congregation's current number of members as defined by your congregation's Bylaws. Non-member friends are counted in another question.

If your congregation is a multi-denominational/federated congregation, do not enter your total members; instead, enter only the number of members who identify as Unitarian Universalist).

2. Multi-Denominational/Federated Members: This question is for multi-denominational/federated congregations only (UUA congregations who do not have multiple denominational affiliations should skip this question). Multi-denominational/federated congregations should report their total membership in this field.
3. How many Non-member Friends do you estimate are currently involved in or contribute to your congregation but are not members?
 - Do include: non-members who financially contribute; parents of students enrolled in religious education; former members who have moved away but still retain a connection such as continuing to receive your newsletter; participants in outreach programs such as a college campus group or military ministry group that your congregation sponsors.

- Do not include: people served by a community social justice program of your congregation that have no other connection to the congregation; attendees at events for which another organization has rented your building; families whose children go to a pre-school program in your building and have no other connection to the congregation.

4. Revised Question: Total Participation – All Ages – Select the range that aligns with your best estimate for the number of people (of all ages) who are engaging with your congregation on a weekly basis in any of its in-person/virtual/online activities?
5. NEW Question: What percent of the total participation is from virtual/online participants? We recognize this can vary from week to week. Please provide the average percentage.
6. Revised Question: Participation – Children & Youth Only – Select the range that aligns with your best estimate for the number of children and youth (ranging in age from nursery through high school) who are engaging with your congregation on a weekly basis in any of its in-person/virtual/online activities?
7. NEW Question: What percent of children & youth participation is from virtual/online participants? We recognize this can vary from week to week. Please provide the average percentage.
8. How many people (ranging in age from nursery through high school) are currently enrolled in Religious Education? This total should equal the number of children and high school youth who are registered within the congregation's religious education program.

For safety reasons, the UUA suggests all children be officially registered. If you need help designing a registration system that works for you, please contact your regional staff. If there are children or high school youth who attend Religious Education programs but are not yet officially registered, you may include them in your total count. Please consider registering all participants so that reported totals in the future will include only these children and high school youth who are officially registered.

Section 5: Diversity Questionnaire

The UUA is asking congregations to continue to confidentially report on the racial, ethnic, and cultural diversity of their members and leadership teams.

This information will help the UUA analyze the impact of racial disparities in Unitarian Universalist faith communities. Results of this survey will be publicly reported, protecting the anonymity of individual congregations and leaders.

Congregations who are unable to complete the diversity questionnaire or opting out must provide a reason for doing so.

In this questionnaire Black, Indigenous and People of Color (BIPOC) may include people who are of African descent, Asian/Pacific Islander, Caribbean, Latinx, Hispanic, Middle Eastern/Arab, Native/American Indian or other indigenous ancestry, and multiracial.
