

Aisha Hauser

Hi, I'm Aisha Hauser. In 2018 I had the privilege of leading a program for the Musician's Network with Reverend Bill Sinkford and Beth Norton. The program was Collaborative Leadership as an Antidote to White Supremacy Culture. And we spent an entire day talking about how collaborative leadership models affirm Unitarian Universalist values, and how it more importantly builds community. And musicians offer these the gift of connecting our souls to each other and to Unitarian Universalism in ways that words simply do not, words alone. And so I encourage and affirm the richness and of the Credentialing Musicians Program.

Transcribed by <https://otter.ai>