

■ John W. Baros-Johnson: Fellowshiped 1991 | delivered the 2003 Confluence Lecture at the Canadian Unitarian Council's Annual Meeting in Winnipeg Manitoba ■ Helen Christine "Chris" Brownlie: Fellowshiped 1998 | enjoyed reading, gardening, sewing, walking, music, and various crafts ■ Bruce C. Clear: Fellowshiped 1983 | published his essay on church conflict, "What I Have Learned about Churches and Ministers as Good Offices Person" ■ Robert "Rob" L. Eller-Isaacs: Fellowshiped 1975 | co-founder of Project Harvest Hope ■ Neal Ward Ferris: Fellowshiped 1959 | accomplished violinist and musician ■ John Patrick Gaffney: Fellowshiped 1994 | liked to end his sermons by saying "Live simply, so that others may simply live" ■ Glenda Ruth Gray: Fellowshiped 1997 | published "Arguments Used Against Women's Suffrage and Women's Rights" ■ Blaine Francis Hartford: Fellowshiped 2001 | liked painting and sculpture, and model building and woodworking ■ James "Jim" Alfred Hobart: Fellowshiped 1964 | veteran of the Selma Voting Rights Campaign ■ Manuel Robert Holland: Fellowshiped 1960 | enjoyed woodworking, biking, camping, and graphic arts ■ charles "charlie" g. kast: Fellowshiped 1981 | was a foster parent to 125 at risk-children over a 25-year period and was proud of the fact that he did know everyone's name ■ David P. Keyes: Fellowshiped 1985 | served as a Disaster Service Volunteer for the American Red Cross ■ Brian S. Kopke: Fellowshiped 1970 | enjoyed watercolor, drawing, sailing, racketball, jogging, woodworking, campaigning, hiking, gardening, movie making, and reading ■ Richard "Dick" D. Leonard: Fellowshiped 1960 | learned to play ten musical instruments and was highly skilled in the violin and piano ■ Hannah Tabitha "Tabby" Rappolt: Fellowshiped 1977 | active member of Needham's square dance club ■ Richardson "Dick" Reid: Fellowshiped 1965 | enjoyed sailing and shell fishing ■ Robert "Bob" E. Senghas: Fellowshiped 1963 | author of Cycles of Reflection ■ Marjorie "Midge" Skwire: Fellowshiped 1980 | a competitive Scrabble player and enjoyed playing in clubs and at local and regional tournaments ■ Todd James Taylor: Fellowshiped 1955 | enjoyed tennis, canoeing, hiking, reading, weaving, and choral singing ■ Kathryn "Kathie" Davis Thomas: Fellowshiped 1996 | enjoyed music (playing flute, singing, and listening), nature and biology, walking, reading, swimming, beachcombing, sailing, sewing and needlework, travel, theatre, and movies ■ Sue M. Turner: Fellowshiped 1982 | was a frequent visitor to the saltwater pool at the Great Sand Dunes ■ Mark Peters Ward: Fellowshiped 2004 | was an avid gardener, an intrepid cook, and enjoyed hiking, canoeing, and sailing ■ Jack Young: Fellowshiped 1986 | made furniture, a name tag holder for UUCR, and a podium for BRUU (Bull Run Unitarian Universalist)