

Proposed Revision to UUA Bylaw Section 7.13. Religious Education Credentialing Committee

DRAFT May 16, 2024

Rationale: The Religious Education Credentialing Committee would like the option to increase the number of members of its committee should the need arise to do so. The following change is proposed to allow flexibility in the committee's composition, while making the bylaw language consistent with that of the Ministerial Fellowship Committee.

877 Section 7.13. Religious Education Credentialing
878 Committee.

879 The Religious Education Credentialing Committee shall consist of 880 no fewer than seven members as follows:

881 (a) three members, none of whom is a parish minister, minister
882 of religious education, community minister, a credentialed
883 religious educator, or a director of religious education,
884 appointed by the Board;

885 (b) one member who is a parish minister or community minister,
886 appointed by the Board;

887 (c) one member who is a minister of religious education,
888 appointed by the Board'

889 (d) one member who is a Credentialed Religious Educator at the
890 highest level granted by the Religious Education
891 Credentialing Committee, appointed by the Board; and

892 (e) one member nominated by the Board of the Liberal Religious 893 Educators Association and appointed by the Board of 894 Trustees.

895 The Committee shall have jurisdiction over religious education
896 credentialing with the Association as provided in Article XII thereof.
897 The Board of Trustees shall designate a person who is not a
898 member of the committee to be its Executive Secretary and keep its 899 records.
