

Starting Sentences for Stories

The squirrel was climbing the tree quickly, too quickly.

The delivery driver was faced with an impossible task, to deliver the food in the midst of a zombie apocalypse.

The boat was gliding across the water.

You are stranded alone on an island.

The robot delivered you an important message.

I can't tell, am I awake or dreaming?

What is this mysterious glowing portal?

I've been on this train for 3 months.

Well, I invented a time machine.

Is it just me, or is the last hour repeating over and over?

That is not a monster. That is my pet.

Today I discovered that I could fly.