

the Account shall be represented by participation shares ("Units") in the Plan, valued in accordance with the provisions of the Plan and the Investment Information Memorandum.

4. Other Important Related Documents. The Subscriber has carefully reviewed the Investment Information Memorandum and the Plan and had an opportunity to, and has, asked such questions as the Subscriber may consider appropriate in connection with investing in the UUCEF.
5. Additional Funds. The Subscriber may from time to time add to the Account money and securities (subject to review and acceptance by the UUA) to be held by the UUA under the terms of this Agreement. Any such new money and securities shall be invested in the UUCEF as of the Investment Date that next follows the delivery of such money or securities to the UUA. Such additions must have a value of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or greater.
6. Interest in Pending Investments and Securities. Pending the investment of money contributed to the Account in the UUCEF on a Valuation Date pursuant to Sections 2 and 4 of this Agreement, such money shall be held in an account at a bank selected by the UUA. Account contributions in the form of securities shall, in the discretion of the UUA, either (i) be sold for the account of the Subscriber, with the resulting proceeds (net of commissions and other costs of disposition, if any) held and contributed to the UUCEF as aforesaid, or (ii), if the UUA in consultation with the UUCEF's Investment Managers (as defined in Section 8 below) and advisers determines that such securities constitute an appropriate investment by the UUCEF, be contributed to the UUCEF on the applicable Valuation Date, valued at the fair market value of such securities as determined by the UUA as of the close of business on the applicable Valuation Date.
7. Distributions. As of each Valuation Date falling at the end of September, December, March, and June after the initial investment of the Account in the UUCEF pursuant to Section 2 herein, the UUA shall pay to the Subscriber an amount equal to the number of Units held by the Subscriber multiplied by the average unit value of the Fund over the previous thirteen quarters multiplied by a percentage elected by the Subscriber (the "Distribution Percentage")³ specified in the Subscriber's Distribution Election Form (in the form attached hereto as Appendix A or such other form as the UUA may establish), such payments to be made promptly following the UUA's determination of the value of the Account as of such Valuation Date, provided that the Subscriber may not elect a Distribution Percentage in excess of 6% per annum. The Subscriber's elected Distribution Percentage shall remain in effect until changed by the Subscriber through the provision to the UUA of a revised Distribution Election Form at least 30 days prior to the Valuation Date to which any such change in the elected Distribution Percentage is to apply. If the Subscriber has not provided a Distribution Election Form, no distributions shall be made from the Account other than redemptions pursuant to Section 8. If the Subscriber elects to redeem funds from the Account pursuant to Section 8, the elected Distribution Percentage shall be applied to the value of the Account prior to the redemption to be effected pursuant to Section 8.
8. Authorization for transactions. The Subscriber shall designate an individual or individuals who will have the authority to make additions to the account, request redemptions, change the distribution rate, and conduct other business with the Fund ("Authorized

Person”) in the form set forth in Appendix B. Any change in the Authorized Person must be sent in writing to the UUA with certification of approval by the governing body of the Congregation.

9. Redemptions. The Subscriber shall have the right to effect redemptions from the Account as of each Valuation Date by specifying the amount to be redeemed in a written notice signed by an authorized person received by the UUA at least 30 days prior to the applicable Valuation Date if the Subscriber wishes to withdraw more than $100,000 and at least 10 days prior to the applicable Valuation Date if the Subscriber wishes to withdraw $100,000 or less.
10. Investment Managers. The UUA shall have full discretionary authority to manage all assets held in the UUCEF in accordance with the Plan and the Investment Information Memorandum, including but not limited to authority to appoint one or more investment managers (each an “Investment Manager”) to manage the UUCEF to the same extent to which the UUA is authorized to manage the UUCEF. The Subscriber may not contact Investment Managers directly. The UUA retains the right to close a Subscriber’s Account for noncompliance with the Investment Information Memorandum, the Plan, the Subscription Agreement or any other conduct deemed detrimental to the UUCEF. If the Treasurer determines that a Subscriber’s behavior or actions warrant the closing of the Subscriber’s Account, the Treasurer shall make a recommendation to the UUA Investment Committee that the Subscriber’s Account be closed. In order for a Subscriber’s Account to be closed, a majority of the UUA Investment Committee must agree the Subscriber’s Account should be closed.
11. Reversion clause. If the UU Organization shall cease to function as an active Congregation with property still held by the UUA under this Agreement, after all outstanding debts are paid, and provided that the UUA is an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code at such time, the remaining assets shall become the property of the UUA, or its successor, subject to all applicable laws. With the prior written approval of the UUA, the congregation may recommend to the UUA another UU Organization (such as a district, camp, conference center, or congregation) as the recipient of the UU Organization’s assets, which recommendation shall be given strong consideration by the UUA.
12. Investment Management and Limitation of Liability. The UUA or, if the UUA delegates such authority thereto, an Investment Manager shall have full and complete discretion to place orders with brokers or dealers or others for the purchase, sale, exchange or liquidation of any property in the UUCEF and to establish accounts with such securities brokers or dealers as the UUA or an Investment Manager may select. Neither the UUA nor an Investment Manager shall be liable for any acts or omissions by any such brokers or dealers, or any third party not owned by the UUA or an Investment Manager (as applicable), provided that the UUA or an Investment Manager, as applicable, is not grossly negligent in the selection of any such broker, dealer or third party.
13. Indemnification. The Subscriber shall indemnify and hold harmless the UUA, its officers, directors, agents (including Investment Managers) and employees (“Indemnified Persons”), to the extent of the Subscriber’s investment in the UUCEF, from and against any and all claims, liabilities (or allegations thereof), costs and expenses (including legal fees) to which any such Indemnified Person may be subjected by reason of investing the Account or the UUCEF, or causing the Account or the UUCEF to be invested, in compliance with the provisions of this Agreement, except in the case of claims, liabilities, costs and expenses resulting from such Indemnified Person’s gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct or reckless disregard of such person’s obligations (“Disabling Conduct”) hereunder. Indemnified Persons shall not be subject to any liability for any act, omission or mistake of judgment in the course of or connected with the performance of their responsibilities under this Agreement except to the extent caused by or attributable to Disabling Conduct. Nothing herein, however, shall be construed to waive any liability that an Indemnified Person may have under applicable federal or state securities laws.

14. Amendments. This Agreement may be amended by the UUA upon prior written notice to the Subscriber setting forth the proposed amendment. Such notice of the amendment shall be delivered at least 90 days prior to a designated date as of which the amendment shall take effect and the Subscriber shall have the right to redeem, upon not less than 30 days' notice (notwithstanding any other notice period for redemption provided for in this Agreement or provisions of the Investment Information Memorandum), all or any portion of the Subscriber's Units. Either the UUA or the Subscriber may waive, but only in writing, any notice or notice period qualification provided for hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, effective immediately upon notice to the Subscriber, the UUA may a) provide for more frequent Valuation Dates, b) permit any action that may be taken hereunder as of a Valuation Date to be taken on more frequent Valuation Dates and c) shorten the notice periods required by the UUA to permit specified actions.
15. Notices. Any notices, requests, statements or payments or communication required or permitted to be given hereunder may be provided by facsimile (including a scanned document attached to an email). All notices shall be deemed duly served on and given, on the date of the delivery of the notice, provided that, if the notice is not provided on a business day, the notice shall be deemed duly served on and given on the next effective business day. Such notices shall be in writing and delivered to the addresses and persons set forth below, or to such other notice address as the Subscriber has provided by written notice. A Subscriber may change its address or the persons specified below by providing notice of the same in accordance herewith.
