

Tapestry of Faith Programs for Adults

PROGRAMS online

The New UU

By Jonalu Johnstone; 6 workshops

This program addresses the newcomer's need to know more about who Unitarian Universalists are and what we believe, and includes opportunities for members of your congregation to share what it means to them to be a Unitarian Universalist.

What Moves Us: Unitarian Universalist Theology

By Thandeka, 10 workshops

An exploration of the life experiences of ten historic and contemporary Unitarian Universalist theologians. Workshops highlight that which caused in each theologian a change of heart, a new direction, new hope, and a deeper understanding of their own liberal faith.

Harvest the Power: Lay Leadership Development

By Matt Tittle, Gail Tittle, and Gail Forsyth-Vail, 12 workshops
New and practiced congregational leaders are invited to enrich and deepen their skills and explore their leadership experience as a Unitarian Universalist faith journey.

Principled Commitment

By Melanie J. Davis, Stephanie Haymaker, Craig Hirshberg, and Richard Bellingham; 11 workshops

Offers avenues of interaction and reflection for Unitarian Universalist adults to grow in faith while nourishing a committed partnership.

Spirit of Life: Exploring Spirituality for Unitarian Universalists

By Barbara Hamilton-Holway; 9 workshops

Newly revised! Brings meaning, beauty, inclusivity, and growth to UU adults as they deepen their spiritual awareness and connections. This program is thematically inspired by Carolyn McDade's popular UU hymn.

Spirit in Practice

By Erik Walker Wikstrom; 10 workshops

A program created to help Unitarian Universalists develop regular disciplines, or practices, of the spirit—practices to help them connect with the sacred ground of their being, however they understand it.

Building the World We Dream About

By Mark A. Hicks; 24 workshops

A program to engage Unitarian Universalists in self-reflection and dialogue across racial and ethnic lines and guide participants to develop and practice multicultural competencies, as they prepare to lead their congregations to welcome racial/ethnic diversity.

COMING SOON!

Living in the Stream: Stories from Unitarian Universalist History

By Jackie Clement and Alison Cornish; 16 workshops

Participants place themselves into the broad sweep of Unitarian Universalist history and heritage and engage with its legacies. What do the stories of our history teach us that help us to live more faithfully?

History of Unitarian Universalist Resistance and Transformation

By Colin Bossen and Julia Hamilton; 16 workshops

Examines the ongoing struggle of our UU tradition to live up to our ever-evolving ideals of social transformation, using stories, primary sources, and reflection.

Multigenerational program – online

Gather the Spirit

By Richard S. Kimball and Christine T. Rafal; 8 sessions

With a focus on water, explores stewardship in many forms: donating money to causes we care about; volunteering; helping to meet the needs of others and working to protect our shared local and global community resources.

RESOURCE

COMING SOON!

Stirring the Nation's Heart: Eighteen Stories of Prophetic Unitarians and Universalists of the Nineteenth Century

By Polly Peterson

Compelling stories from the lives of Transcendentalists and reformers who are part of our UU history. Supplementary materials extend each story into family and congregational life. Available from the UUA Bookstore in August, 2010.

www.uua.org.tapestryoffaith