YOUTH:

Go online! It's so quick, just tell us how to stay in touch with you:

www.uua.org/bridgeconnections

You may be leaving your congregation, but you still have a home in the UU faith. Wherever life takes you, Bridge Connections leads you to a loving spiritual community that can welcome you with open arms.

HOW IT WORKS

With your permission, the Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministries shares your information only with the local congregation or group that is ready to welcome you in the next phase of your life.

ADULTS:

As your youth cross the bridge to adulthood, help make sure there's something on the other side.

- 1) Make it easy to do – bring a laptop to a youth group meeting, hand them a smartphone, or give them the printable form to complete and mail it to the UUA.
- 2) Make it hard to forget – distribute the handy tear-off bookmarks, email them the link, and FOLLOW UP afterwards to confirm.

Keep in touch!

BFFs!

You made your group great!

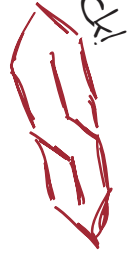

Don't forget us!

Have a great summer!

Couldn't have made it through the year without you!

The Bridge Connections program helps keep youth transitioning (“bridging”) into young adulthood connected to UU faith communities. Each spring, bridging youth send their contact information to the Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministries at the Unitarian Universalist Association. Congregations and groups are contacted in the fall when a bridging youth moves to their area.
