

The Summit on Youth Ministry

On July 16-20 fifty-four youth and adults (approximately half and half) gathered in Boston for the Summit on Ministry to and with Youth to imagine and shape a youth ministry that serves all Unitarian Universalist youth.

We envisioned a youth ministry that is central to the articulated mission of Unitarian Universalism, offers multiple pathways for involvement in our faith communities, and is congregationally based;
multigenerational;
spirit-centered;
counter-oppressive, multicultural, and radically inclusive.

We need your support to move these visions into reality! For a full report from the Summit please reference the October Board packet online. You will find the Summit Report in the related content links on the top right corner of the page.

For more information please contact:

Youthministry@uua.org

The Summit on Youth Ministry

On July 16-20 fifty-four youth and adults (approximately half and half) gathered in Boston for the Summit on Ministry to and with Youth to imagine and shape a youth ministry that serves all Unitarian Universalist youth.

We envisioned a youth ministry that is central to the articulated mission of Unitarian Universalism, offers multiple pathways for involvement in our faith communities, and is
congregationally based;
multigenerational;
spirit-centered;
counter-oppressive, multicultural, and radically inclusive.

We need your support to move these visions into reality! For a full report from the Summit please reference the October Board packet online. You will find the Summit Report in the related content links on the top right corner of the page.

For more information please contact:

youthministry@uua.org