In these hard times there will always be singing

Yes there will always be singing

In these hard times there will always be singing

Yes in these hard times yes there will

Yes in these hard times Yes there will

Yes in these hard times Yes there will

In these hard times there will always be singing

In these hard times there will always be singing

In these hard times there will always be singing

In these hard times there will always be singing
