

Intergenerational Spring Seminar April 15-18, 2020 | New York City

Annually, the UU United Nations Office hosts youth and adults from all over North America for a three-day intensive seminar focusing on issues of global concern.

Past themes have explored gender equity, migration, disarmament, criminal justice, & more.

The theme for our 2020 Seminar will be

ALL IN FOR CLIMATE JUSTICE: PEOPLE, POWER, PLANET

Through interactive workshops, panels, worship, and small-group discussions, participants in this intergenerational seminar will:

- Be equipped with examples of powerful local organizing and skills to organize strategically.
- Learn how to strengthen relationships with local indigenous organizers and support their leadership in the struggle for climate justice.
- Contextualize the intersectionality of the climate justice conversation – including climate-forced migration and disproportionate impacts on frontline communities.
- Understand how to be involved with UN climate change mitigation & adaptation efforts.
- ... & more!

JOIN US IN NEW YORK

The Unitarian Universalist United Nations Office's 2020 Intergenerational Spring Seminar will take place from April 16-18, 2020, with youth and their sponsors arriving on April 15 for orientation.

Registration for the 2020 Intergenerational Spring Seminar is open from December 2, 2019 – March 2, 2020. Register by mid-January for early bird rates!

Limited scholarships will be available to offset the cost of registration. Please check our website for more details about scholarships, leadership opportunities, and program details!

Learn more about the Seminar at www.uua.org/unspringseminar