

FORTH: A Stewardship Development Program
Workshop Participant Responses to the Following Question
Organized alphabetically by Key Word

What are the characteristics – skills, competencies, and qualities – of people who should be on your stewardship team?

Spirit of abundance (vs. scarcity)

Accounting skills

Action oriented

Adaptable to different situations

Willing to ask for money

Focus on big picture

Bold

Budget knowledge

Change agent

Charismatic

Clear message

Collaborative

Committed to congregation

Committed to UUism

Good communicator

Compassionate

Connected to different groups

Entirely credible

Database experience

Detail oriented

Delegation skills

Age, economic, cultural diversity

Care for donors

Dynamic

An educator

Energetic

Engaging

Enthusiastic

Excited about the challenge

Extrovert

Good facilitator

Financially savvy

Finisher (completes task on time)

Flexible

Focused

Move congregation forward

Good follow through

Friendly

Specific fundraising skills

Generous (time, talent, treasure)

Gentle

Commitment to growth

Sense of humor

Inspirational

Internet skills

Able to “interpret”

Intuitive

Knowledgeable about congregation

Active listener

Sense of mission

Newcomer

Optimistic

Organizational skills

Good event planner

Passionate

Patient

Persuasive

Planning skills

Positive energy

Process oriented

Project manager

Respect of the congregation

Respect donor’s privacy

Responsible

Results oriented

Sensitive

Smart

Sociable

Social justice advocate

Spiritual

Enthusiastic steward

Storyteller

Team player

Technocrat

Ability to think outside the box

Trustworthy

Veteran member

Visible

Long-range vision

Welcoming

Good writing skills

Youth leader