Re: Org Chart for UUA

Date: 19 Dec 2008

Courtesy of our treasured Financial Advisor Dan Brody, you'll find on the next page his attempt to document how our UUA organization looks today. The question about how we are organized now keeps coming up in our governance work, and Dan was inspired to produce this fine piece of work.

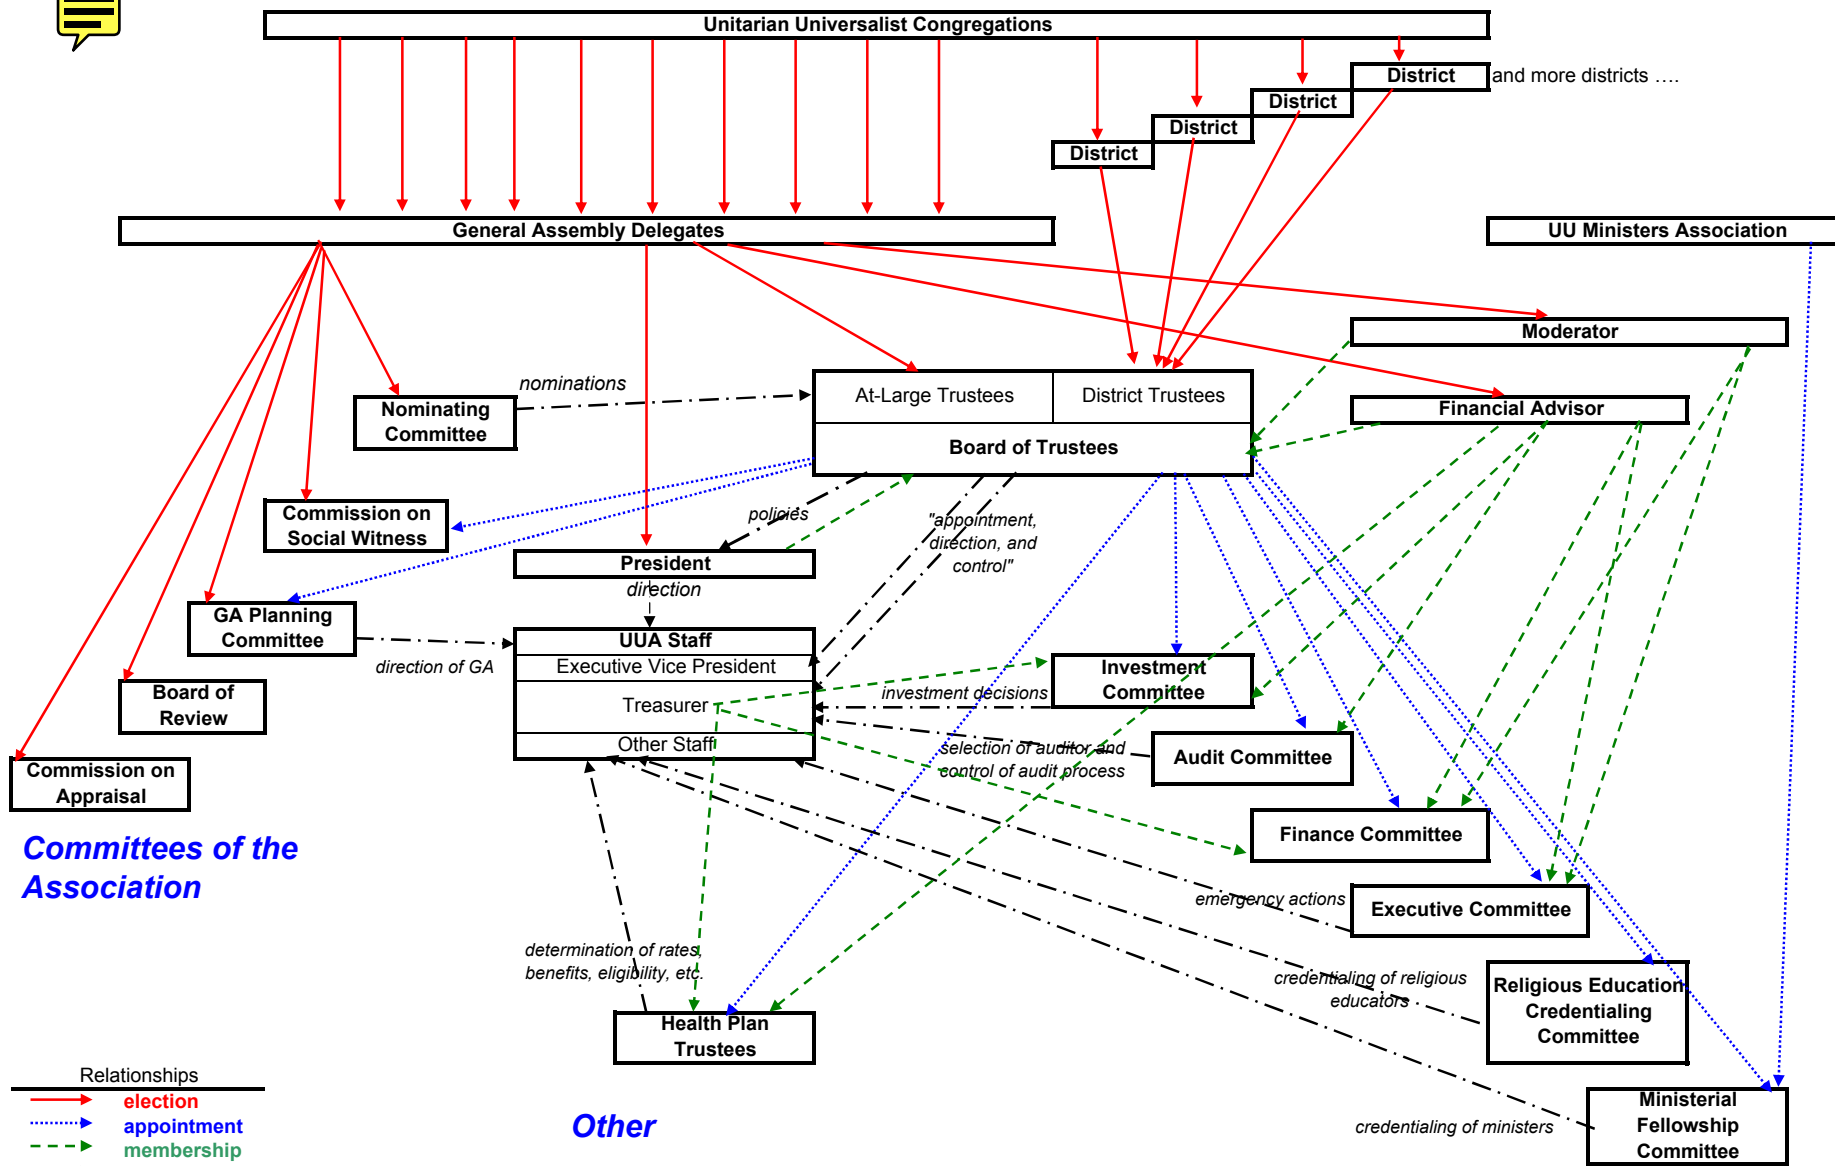

We include it here for your info, and for our future reference. We expect that this chart will be especially valuable as we get deeper into life in our new governance model, and begin to think about what we would like the organization to look like down the road.

And, we all have enough on our plates right now, I think.

Thanks to Dan for this helpful work.
