

A Brief Unitarian Universalist Guide to Accessibility Resources

Top Picks for Accessibility

www.uua.org/accessibility

Resources on ableism, anti-ableism, accessibility, disability awareness, buildings, meetings, and more. The most frequently requested accessibility resources on uua.org.

Accessibility Information for Unitarian Universalist Churches

Available online soon at uua.org

A comprehensive accessibility resource for congregations, developed in partnership with the United Methodist Church. Chapters include: introduction and information about specific disabilities and etiquette; an accessibility audit of a church's building, grounds, etc. based on ADA guidelines; agencies/organizations, manufacturers, and print/online resources around accessibility; and a glossary.

Equal Access

www.equalaccess.org

A Unitarian Universalist member organization of people with disabilities, families, friends, and allies that promotes equality and access for UUs with disabilities. Includes board and caucus contact information, online resources for accessibility, and news/event information.

Worship Resources

www.uua.org/leaders/idbm/accessibility/62850.shtml

Orders of service, poems, readings, responsive readings, sermons, and stories for use in disability/accessibility-themed worship services.

Accessibility improvements to uua.org www.uua.org/about/13374.shtml (scroll to "More Accessible Content")

Useful information about the recent improvements to uua.org that make the site more accessible to users. Includes stronger contrast; larger fonts; consistent headers; and progress toward the goal of including keyboard controls and captions and/or transcripts with all multimedia files.