“Flipping” and Lifespan Faith Development
* Exploring the religious Big Questions
* Applying one’s faith to life issues
* Exploring and articulating one’s evolving beliefs and personal faith
* Reflecting, discerning, thinking critically
“The teacher is no longer merely the-one-who-teaches, but one who is himself taught in dialogue with the students, who in turn while being taught also teach. They become jointly responsible for a process in which all grow.”

-- from Pedagogy of the Oppressed, Chapter 2
from “banking” to “problem-posing” education
Angus MacLean:

• promoted a child-centered and experience-centered, rather than a Bible-centered, approach.

• how religion is taught is more important than what is taught.

“the method is the message”
Life is religious whenever we make it so.
