

New Worlds Manifest

Ed Thompson

Adapted from the writings of Margaret Fuller

Laura Lucille Halfvarson

♩ = 85

1. We seek in na - ture and in art For ways to com - pre - 2. All wo - men and all men a - like May free - ly use the
3. No mat - ter what our cir - cum - stance, Our na - ture is to 4. And on this jour - ney share the thoughts That beck - on, old or hend The mean - ing that our life en - folds, what makes us break or mind, And thus from thought - less, man - nered ways A tru - er path - way grow; And in that growth we may dis - cern the gifts we can be - new; Sur - pass - ing chal - lenge, strive be - yond: Our lives will be re - bend. With - in each leaf and brush of paint — Our traits we ap - pre - find. But al - so, free - ly let's em - ploy — Im - a - gin - a - tion's stow. What - ev - er be your call - ing do! — Sin - cere - ly, and with newed. With cour - age then, may we reach out — To aid the op - pressed and 13

5

9

hend; And in these pat - terns — we — can find A life that's with - out part, that dwells in - side of — ev - er - y soul; and makes of life an zest; And in that work may — we — then find The ho - ly man - i - weak And in that strug - gle — man - i - fest The jus - tice that we 17

end. — A life that's with - out end.
art. — And makes of life an art.
fest. — The ho - ly man - i - fest.
seek. — The jus - tice that we seek.