

New Worlds Manifest

Ed Thompson

Adapted from the writings of Margaret Fuller

Laura Lucille Halfvarson

$\bullet = 85$ Unison

1. We seek in na - ture and in
2. All wo - men and all men a -
3. No mat - ter what our cir - cum -
4. And on this jour - ney share the art For ways to com - pre - hend The mean - ing that our life en - like May free - ly use the mind, And thus from thought - less, man - nered stance, Our na - ture is to grow And in that growth we may dis - 6 thoughts That bec - kon, old or new; Sur - pass - ing chal - lenge, strive be -

6

10

10 folds, what makes us break or bend. With - in each leaf and brush of ways A tru - er path - way find. But al - so, free - ly let's em - cern the gifts we can be - stow. What - ev - er be your call - ing, 10 yond: Our lives will be re - newed. With cour - age then, may we reach paint — Our traits we ap - pre - hend; And in these pat - terns — we — can ploy — Im - a - gin - a - tion's part, that dwells in side of — ev - er - y do! — Sin - cere - ly, and with zest; And in that work may — we — then 14 out — To aid'the op - pressed and weak And in that strug - gle — man - i - find A life that's with - out end. — A life that's with - out soul; and makes of life an art. — And makes of life an find The ho - ly man - i - fest. — The ho - ly man - i - 18 fest The jus - tice that we seek. — The jus - tice that we Repeat options for vs. 1-3: return to Measure 1 or 4.

14

18

22

end.
 art.
 fest.
 22 seek.