New Worlds Manifest

Adapted from the writings of Margaret Fuller

Laura Lucille Halfvarson

Ed Thompson

Unison

1. We seek in nature and in art For ways to comprehend folds, what makes us break or bend. With"

2. All women and all men are like May freely use the mind, And thus from thoughtless, mannered ways A truer path-way find. But also, freely let's em-cern the gifts we can be-stow. What-ev-er be your call-ing,

3. No matter what our cir-cum-stance. Our nature is to grow And in that growth we may discern the gifts we can be-stow. What-ev-er be your call-ing,

4. And on this jour-ney share the thoughts That beckon, old or new; Sur-pass-ing chal-lenge, strive beyond: Our lives will be re-newed. With courage then, may we reach © Copyright 2010 by Laura Halfvarson Jump paint Our traits we appre hend; And in these patterns we can ploy Imagination's part, that dwells in side of every do! Sincere ly, and with zest; And in that work may we then out To aid the oppressed and weak And in that struggle man i - find A life that's without end. A life that's with out soul; and makes of life an art. And makes of life an find The holy man - i - fest. The ho ly man - i - fest The justice that we seek. The jus - tice that we Repeat options for vs. 1-3: return to Measure 1 or 4.

end. seek.
art.
fest.