We can dare to face ourselves in our entirety,
to understand our pain,
to feel the tears,
to listen to our frustration and confusion, and to discover new capacities and capabilities that will empower and transform us.

~ Rev. Mel Hoover, Been In the Storm So Long
Goals

Model vulnerability for ourselves and each other

Shared Vision of our UU Movement

Congregations and communities are intentionally inclusive, multigenerational and multicultural.

Congregations and communities engage in partnerships to counter systems of power, privilege and oppression.
It may be that when we no longer know what to do we have come to our real work, and that when we no longer know which way to go we have come to our real journey. The mind that is not baffled is not employed. The impeded stream is the one that sings.

What resonated?
Do you have a story to share that others would learn from?
What are your next steps from here?
Prayer for Living in Tension

If we have any hope of transforming the world and changing ourselves, we must be bold enough to step into our discomfort, brave enough to be clumsy there, loving enough to forgive ourselves and others.

May we, as a people of faith, be granted the strength to be so bold, so brave, and so loving.

~ Rev. Joseph M Cherry (excerpt) from An Anthology of Meditations: Voices from the Margins
