HEATHER LYNN HANSON
(1938-2019)

The Ministries and Faith Development staff offer our condolences to the family and colleagues of the Rev. Heather Lynn Hanson, who died on November 24, 2019, at the age of 81.

Heather was born on June 29, 1938 in Oregon. She graduated in 1960 from Portland State University, OR with a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education, following which she earned an Associate degree in TV Production Technology from Mt. Hood Community College, OR in 1974. Soon after, in 1975, Heather received her Master of Arts in Communications from the University of Portland, OR. She then worked in various videos, adult education and training jobs for fifteen years before following her call to ministry. In 1994, Heather earned her Master of Divinity from the Pacific School of Religion, CA.

Rev. Hanson was ordained on October 23, 1994 by the First UU Church Houston, TX where she carried out her first ministry (1994-1997). Thereafter, she served the UU Church in Eugene, OR (1997-1998) and Bellingham Unitarian Fellowship, WA (1998-1999). From 1999 to 2001, Rev. Hanson ministered at the UU Congregation at Shelter Rock, NY as an Interim Minister and from 2001 to 2002, at the First Unitarian Church of Denver, CO, also as an Interim Minister. Then, over a decade, Rev. Hanson carried out a series of interim ministries at the following congregations: the First UU Church of San Diego, CA (2002-2004); the First Unitarian Church of Wilmington, DE (2005-2006); Rogue Valley UU Fellowship, OR (2006-2008); Tahoma UU Congregation, WA (2008-2010); Shoreline UU Church, WA (2010-2012); and lastly at Eastrose Fellowship UU, OR (2013-2014). She retired from active ministry in 2016.

Rev. Hanson carried out a great deal of services on behalf of the denomination. She was producer of the video tape “The Interim Opportunity” for the UUA Dept. of Ministry. She served the Pacific North West District (PNWD) Leadership School in various roles, as a group facilitator (1985); and as a co-presenter of the topic of Conflict for the Winter School (1986). Furthermore, she also served the PNWD Conflict Intervention team for five years.

She functioned as a researcher and writer for the League of Women Voters (1971-1974); as a producer for the teacher training series for the Oregon Dept. of Education (1976-1977), and for the “By, For, About Women” cable series, Longview, WA (1980-1981).

In her spare time Heather greatly enjoyed ensemble singing, writing music, dance (especially folk dancing), photography, conversation, reading, and hikes in nature. Additionally, she loved attending live theater, dance, concerts, and art and science museums.

In tribute to Heather’s life, her son Trevor wrote:

“My mother felt the need to be a calming presence to the turbulent spirit of humanity. In a world filled with people making noise, desperately trying to be heard, she chose to listen to people. Hear their concerns, opinions, outrages at the world’s inequity and indifference. By hearing people, she gave them the validation they desired and allowed them to withdraw their voice from the cacophony of the world’s noise. This is how she added to the tranquility of the world, one voice at a time. My mother was a peaceful heart.”

Heather is survived by her sons Trevor and Shane; her brothers, Kirk Campbell and wife Janet, and Doug Campbell and wife Ellen.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the UU Fellowship of Corvallis, 2945 NW Circle Blvd, Corvallis, OR 97330.

The Ministries and Faith Development staff offer our condolences to the family and colleagues of the Rev. Dr. Hugo “Holly” J. Hollerorth, who died on September 22, 2019, at the age of 94.

Hugo was born on June 6, 1925 in Jefferson City, MO to Hugo John and Rose Johannah. He graduated from Northwestern University, IL in 1946 with a Bachelor of Science in business, following which he received his two degrees - a Bachelor of Divinity in 1949, and a Master of Arts in 1965, both from the University of Chicago, IL. In 1985, Hugo earned his Doctor of Education (EdD) from New York University. Later in 2005, Meadville Lombard Theological School awarded him an honorary Doctor of Divinity.

Rev. Dr. Hollerorth was ordained in 1949. He served as a Minister of Education at the Central Unitarian Church of Paramus, NJ, from 1959 to 1961; and as an Associate Professor of Religious Education at St. Lawrence School (Universalist), Canton, NY, from 1961 to 1965. Then in 1965, he joined the UUA as the Director of Curriculum Development, where he served until 1980. During this tenure, Rev. Dr. Hollerorth developed educational programs for children, youth and adults for use in Unitarian Universalist churches and fellowships across the continent. He oversaw the work of development teams and authors, field testing programs prior to publication, editorial work, interpreting programs to local societies, and training teachers in their use.

Rev. Dr. Hollerorth believed that the existing curricula did not “address the human situation within which children and youth will be and are living,” and launched a new curriculum series based on the discovery learning method. He wrote that this method was “grounded in the conviction that the most effective learning occurs when children have an opportunity to intuit principles for themselves from concrete experiences in their daily lives.” To aid with the discovery learning process, the curriculum “kits,” included visuals, books, filmstrips, audiotapes, puzzles, illustrations, games, music, and other materials and strategies to bring the curricula alive for children and youth with diverse learning styles. The kits whose development he oversaw included Decision Making (1968), Man the Meaning Maker (1969), Man the Culture Builder (1971), Human Heritage (1972), Person to Person Communication (1972), The Adventures of God’s Folk (1974), and Haunting House (1974, written by his wife, Barbara Hollerorth). Rev. Dr. Hollerorth was author of Freedom and Responsibility (1969); and co-author of Our Experiencing, Believing, and Celebrating (1979). The curriculum vision was to enable children and youth to, in his words, “evolve a life-enhancing orientation to the world.”

In the late 1960s, Rev. Dr. Hollerorth shepherded the creation and publication of About Your Sexuality (AYS), a sexuality education curriculum kit by Deryck Calderwood for junior high youth (grades 7 and 8). Created in response to requests from parents and religious educators for materials that would help young people navigate this area against the backdrop of the sexual revolution of the 1960s, AYS included topics which other secular curricula did not. In the curriculum description, Hollerorth wrote: “Employing the full range of human knowledge about human sexuality; creative interaction with each other in a relationship of freedom, love, sensitivity, and so on; and diversity of thought, young people attempt to evolve a life-enhancing orientation to their sexuality.” About Your Sexuality, revised and supplemented over the years, remained in print until it was replaced by Our Whole Lives. The AYS curriculum laid the groundwork for what is a vital piece of Unitarian Universalist faith development to this day.

For their contribution to Unitarian Universalist religious education, Hugo and Barbara received the Angus H. MacLean Award for Excellence in Religious Education at the 1976 UUA General Assembly in Claremont, CA.

In addition to his ministry, Hugo belonged to several community organizations. From 1975 to 1980, he performed as a workshop leader in human sexuality for Boston Family Service and several private secondary schools. He was a member of the HEW Federal Government Task Force on Education for Human Sexuality (1977); volunteer (1977-1978) and a Chairperson (1979) for the University of Chicago Alumni Fund, Greater Boston Area. Furthermore, he functioned as a Health Curriculum Specialist at Joslin Diabetes Center in Boston, MA. Beginning in the 1990’s, Hugo was involved with the Southern Middlesex Opportunity Council. He first served on the staff, then after retiring, he served on the Board. While on the Board he wrote “Building a Culture of Care: The Ongoing Saga of the South Middlesex Opportunity Council”, which looks at the origins, history and evolution of the organization. Hugo served the military and was an honorable discharge recipient. In his spare time, Hugo enjoyed travel, home decorating, biking, politics, and films.

After Hugo’s passing, Mr. Barb Greve, UUA Co-Moderator and a religious educator, wrote of him:

“Holly (as he preferred to be called) was a dear friend and a mentor. I grew up in the congregation he chose as his religious home (First Parish in Framingham, MA). Holly was a shy and quiet person, though in the right setting he would open up like a beautiful flower. This past summer I had the great delight to spend some time with him after services at church. He reflected on the nearing end of his own life and his amazement at how much his body and abilities were changing. His mind was quick as ever. He shared his joy and pride at helping bring AYS into being and loved that OWL was a progressive extension of that work. He marveled at how much had changed in his lifetime and how much had stayed the same. He was a dedicated steward of our faith and will be sorely missed by many.”

Hugo is survived by his daughter Rachel Buerlen; and his grandchildren Holly Buerlen, Jason Buerlen, and Nicole Hunter, and his great grandchildren Kairi and Dominic.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the First Parish in Framingham; to Planned Parenthood; and to the Head Start-South Middlesex Opportunity Council.

A celebration of Hugo’s life took place at 1 pm on Saturday, November 16, 2019, at the First Parish in Framingham, 24 Vernon St, Framingham, MA 01701.

Notes of condolences may be sent to Rachel Buerlen at 33 Thurston Hill Road, Rutland, MA 01543-1626.

The Ministries and Faith Development staff offer our condolences to the family and colleagues of the Rev. Erinn Jeanne Caitlin Melby, who died on May 18, 2019, at the age of 70.

Rev. Melby was born on July 15, 1948 in Benson, Minnesota, to William Lincoln Melby and Betty Jane (McNellis) Melby. In 1975, she received a Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy and English from Macalester College, and a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from the University of Southern Colorado. Rev. Melby spent eight years in the U.S. Air Force as a Computer Operations Supervisor for NORAD Headquarters in Colorado Springs, CO, before heeding her call toward ministry. In 1984, she graduated from Starr King School for the Ministry (SKSM), CA, with her Master of Divinity.

Rev. Melby was one of the first Unitarian Universalists to attend seminary as an openly trans person; she came out to SKSM during her first year while giving a presentation on “gays, lesbians, and transsexuals.” She had first come out as trans in 1967 and first changed her name in 1975, although she went on to maintain a relationship with her pre-transition self, Karl, for the rest of her life.

Like almost all aspiring trans UU ministers, Rev. Melby experienced barriers to living out her call to ministry. She went before the Ministerial Fellowship Committee (MFC) unsuccessfully in both 1984 and 1985. Almost a decade later, after a two-year chaplain residency and a day-and-a-half-long psychological evaluation, she was finally passed by the MFC. She was welcomed into preliminary fellowship in 1994 and ordained on June 4, 1995, by the UU Church of Davis, CA.

Following her ordination, Rev. Melby served as a Chaplain/Spiritual Counsellor at Yolo Hospice for sixteen years (1995–2011). In leading the annual memorial service, her warm, resonant voice welcomed everyone to touch the tenderness of grief, no matter what face of “The Holy” they had or hadn’t known. She simultaneously served the UU Church of Palo Alto, CA, as its first community minister (1999–2001) and directed a Pastoral Associates Program at the congregation. In 2011, Rev. Melby retired from active ministry.

Outside her ministry, Rev. Melby was an active participant in UUA district and regional activities. She was involved with the Pacific Central District UUA, particularly around LGBTQ issues. She also was an active member of TRUUsT (Transgender Religious professional UUs Together). One of the fifteen people who attended the first TRUUsT membership retreat in 2016 in Pacific Grove, CA, Rev. Melby was a minister to ministers, offering her chaplaincy and pastoral care to the TRUUsT community.

Throughout her life, Rev. Melby worked on issues of social justice, particularly related to HIV/AIDS. She served as a Consultant to the Sacramento AIDS Interfaith Network; assisted the Sacramento AIDS Housing Alliance; and provided pastoral care to the LGBTQ community via the Lambda Center and UC Davis Medical Center. In her spare time, she enjoyed writing short stories, reading mysteries, drawing, and painting, as well as attending concerts and plays.

Rev. Melby is survived by her children Hans Melby, Bjorn Melby, Anna (Melby) Strain; her aunt Joanne (McNellis) Kavanaugh; four grandchildren; hundreds of friends; and her extended family within TRUUsT.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to TRUUsT (Transgender Religious professional UUs Together) and/or the American Cancer Society.

A celebration of Rev. Melby’s life took place at 2 pm on Saturday, July 27th, 2019, at the UU Church of Davis, 27074 Patwin Road, Davis, CA 95616.

Notes of condolences may be sent to Anna Strain at 8805 Acadia Road, St. Paul, MN 55125.

She graduated from Suffolk University, MA, in 1954, with a Bachelor of Arts in English and History, following which she worked as a newspaper reporter, feature writer, and catalogued manuscripts at the Huntington Library. In 1962, Priscilla joined the Peace Corps and went to Manizales, Colombia where she lived with a family and increased her Spanish speaking fluency. She then received her Master of Arts in English American Literature in 1966, from Ohio Wesleyan University, before following her call to ministry. In 1985, Priscilla earned her Master of Divinity from Andover Newton Theological School, MA.

Rev. Murdock was ordained by the UU Church of Wakefield, MA on June 9, 1985, and carried out her first ministry at the UU Meeting House of Pittsfield, ME from 1985 to 1990. In 1991, she accepted a call from the UU Church in Reston, VA where she served as an interim minister until 1992. Then over a decade and half, Rev. Murdock served in a series of parish ministries at the following congregations: First Unitarian Church, Cincinnati, OH (1992-1997); UU Church of Stockton Illinois, IL (1997-2003); and finally, at the St Paul’s Church of Palmer, MA (2003-2008). On August 31, 2008, Rev. Murdock retired from active ministry.

Outside her ministry, Rev. Murdock taught UU Polity at Bangor Seminary, ME for a year (1987). She was ministerial representative for the Central Midwest Religious Education Committee (1997-2001); Secretary-Treasurer (1997-2002) for the Stockton Ministerial Association; and director for the Midwest UU Conference (1998).

Furthermore, Peri taught Spanish at Wakefield High School, MA, and English and Spanish at international schools in Brussels and in Lahore, Pakistan. In her spare time, she enjoyed drama, music, reading, history and travel. She traveled extensively, to nearly fifty countries on five continents.

Peri’s friend Rev. Dr. Nina D. Grey, remembers:

“While serving in Keene UU Church, NH, I would sometimes on my days off visit Andover Newton Theological School just to get out of town! So, I would see Peri sometimes on those visits. I was blessed to be able to take two trips with her over the years, a bus tour after a Spokane GA to Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver British Columbia while I was in Keene; and a car trip to Nova Scotia while I was at Germantown in Philly. These were a long time ago! Peri’s decision to continue serving until she was 75, I believe, inspired me to do likewise!”

Peri is survived by her nieces, Leslie Garner and Debra Gerlach; her nephew, Russ Traunstein; many of her grandnieces, nephews and cousins; and UUA Communities and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, William and Ethel (Murdock) Traunstein, and her brothers.

In lieu of flowers, donations in her name may be made to a charity of one’s own choosing as well as to the Palmer Rotary Club, 1465 N Main St, Palmer, MA 01069.

Judith’s son James had these thoughts to share in reminiscence of his mother: The thing I remember the most (and that people often mention first when remembering her services) was her “Freddy the Frog” stories. The way in which they brought children into adult service, and the opportunity for her to use her voice performance skills was legendary. Personally, her drive for justice in the world around her really affected my brother and me. She was committed to understanding the ways in which UUs could help drive fundamental change. She influenced countless others in her
