

Thursday 6/25 10:45 – 12:00PMBUSINESS MINI-ASSEMBLY I

10:45 – 12:00PM | B110-112

All business of the General Assembly is conducted during General Sessions. Mini-Assemblies offer opportunities in small sessions for delegates to speak on issues, find out more about individual business items before voting, and propose amendments to the business item.

HABITS OF HUMILITY: CONGREGATIONAL TEAMS AS LEARNING COMMUNITIES

10:45 – 12:00PM | D135-136

Our faith communities need to develop habits of humility to be able to engage with a changing world. Religious professionals and lay leaders who both learn and serve together can create agile congregations. Learn how your church can share ministry by creating learning opportunities that include both established leaders and those at the margins.

WHEN BUILDING A NEW WAY GOES AWRY

10:45 – 12:00PM | Oregon Ballroom 202

Meadville Lombard Theological School

Can we learn from past examples of movements intended for social good that caused great harm? What concrete measures do we have in place to insure that our efforts at building a new way reflect genuine mutually beneficial community partnerships, not the imposition of one construct of the social good on less powerful groups?

TALK THE WALK: SPEAKING JUSTICE IN THE LANGUAGE OF OUR FAITH

10:45 – 12:00PM | B117-119

UU College of Social Justice

Historical movements for justice have often been inspired and sustained by religious faith and practice. Ours is an activist faith, yet when we take action in the public sphere our religion is often invisible. How might we bring our own justice commitments into deeper conversation with our spiritual lives, and learn to speak our convictions in the language of our faith?

Rev. Lindi Ramsden

DIVESTING FROM FOSSIL FUELS: WORKING WITH YOUR INVESTMENT COMMITTEE

10:45 – 12:00PM | D133-134

UU Fellowship of Corvallis, Oregon

What happens when climate crisis activists desperate to divest from fossil fuels approach an investment committee who takes its fiduciary responsibility very seriously? An adversarial situation in which right relations do not prevail? Or a new view of investment as a spiritual practice? We will role play various scenarios and discuss strategies most likely to be effective.

PASSING THE BATON: TRANSITIONS AND CONTINUITY IN LEADERSHIP

4:45 – 6:00PM | Portland Ballroom 254

Congregational Life, The Stewardship for Us Team, UUA Central Eastern Region, UUA Southern Region

Congregational leaders often feel as though their institutions operate not on the basis of “20 years of institutional experience,” but on the basis of “1 year of experience, 20 times over.” This workshop addresses two paths a congregation can take to break this cycle: long-term, multidiscipline planning for leader development and effective leadership transitions.

FRIDAY

SHINING A LIGHT: SHARING RECOVERY NARRATIVES

4:45 – 6:00PM | Portland Ballroom 255

UU Addictions and Recovery Ministry Team

Sharing stories of recovery can be a transformative experience. The tradition of anonymity in many recovery groups has sometimes restricted the wider availability of these stories. Some are now choosing to shed their anonymity, challenging the shame and stigma sometimes associated with addiction and recovery while promoting awareness, understanding, and connection.

*Dr. Therissa LibbyHarriet AltmanRev. Rod RichardsTHE POWER OF ACCOMPANIMENT

4:45 – 6:00PM | E143-144

UU Church of Arlington, Virginia

Experience the power of accompaniment, Unitarian Universalists walking in relationship with indigenous Maya Guatemalans as they organize to defend their rights against governing oligarchs and multinational corporations, and with local immigrants in the US as they struggle for economic freedom. The spiritual rewards of such human connection flow both ways.

*Juanita Cabrera LopezErin FitzGeraldMegan Solis WhelanRev. Dr. Linda Olson PeeblesSOLIDARITY ACROSS THE FOOD CHAIN

CONGREGATIONAL POLITY AND THE MYTH OF CONGREGATIONAL AUTONOMY

1:15 – 2:30PM | B117-119

New England Region

Congregational polity is not fundamentally about autonomy or protecting individuals from spiritual coercion. This misunderstanding repels healthy people, weakens connections among churches, and perpetuates widespread suspicion about leadership. This workshop lays groundwork for a movement-wide re-covenanting process that could reunite the community of UU congregations.
