

Donations to the UU-UNO

Canadian Funds

These instructions below are for cash or cheque donations. Individuals may also donate online at <https://cuc.ca/about-cuc/options-giving/>, scroll to the bottom of the page, and select UU-United Nations Office.

After the service or event...

1. Collect all cheques made out to the “Canadian Unitarian Council” with “Unitarian Universalist UN Office” or “UU-UNO” in the memo line.
2. Collect any donation envelopes.
3. Collect and count all loose cash donations and any cheques made out to your congregation with the intent to support the UU-UNO. Write a cheque to the “Canadian Unitarian Council” with “Unitarian Universalist UN Office” or “UU-UNO” in the memo line for this amount.*
 - *In order to receive donation acknowledgment for a cash contribution, ensure people use the donation envelope. Cash collected not using the CUC donation envelope are anonymous, they will not receive an acknowledgement of donation letter from the CUC.
 - Cheques written to the congregation that are intended for the UU-UNO should be combined by the treasurer and one cheque should be sent to the CUC pay to the order of Canadian Unitarian Council with UU-UNO in the memo line. Please take note of the names and amount of these cheques. They will not receive a letter of acknowledgement from the CUC, however the UU UN Office can note their contribution in the database.
4. Mail the donation envelopes and any cheques in one package, along with the Gift Information Form (below) to

Canadian Unitarian Council
302-192 Spadina Avenue
Toronto, ON M5T 2C2

If you have any questions, or any other scenarios arise which these suggestions don't address, feel free to contact the UU-UNO. See more about the CUC UU-UNO Partnership: <http://cuc.ca/cuc-united-nations-initiatives>
